CONFIDENTIAL:

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
Madras-6.

U.O.NOTE No.9-C7/49 dated 21 September 1949.

The first vacancy that arose in the History unit in the Madras Educational Service (Women's Branch) was the one caused by the appointment of Mrs. T.N. Ramamurti as Principal, Queen Mary's College, consequent on the retirement of Miss Myers. Hence the post was reserved to be filled by direct recruitment and Miss. M. Achaya was recruited directly to the Madras Educational Service, to the above post on 16-10-1947. In G.O. No. 1885 Education dated 29-7-1948, it was ordered that one post of Lecturer in History in the Queen Mary's College, Madras be converted into the M post of Assistant Lecturer in History in the Madras Educational Subordinate Service. Accordingly in G.O. Ms. No.3035 Education dated 1-12-1948, Miss Achaya was discharged from Madras Educational Service with effect from 10-12-1948 A.N.

Mrs. T.J. Cleetus, permanent Lecturer in History, Queen Mary's College retired from service on 15-6-1949 and the post has been vacant since then. This being the second vacancy in the History unit, has to be filled by recruitment by transfer from the Madras Educational Subordinate Service. Mrs. Devaki Damodaram is now officiating in the above vacancy and waiting for confirmation. She has completed her probation satisfactorily on 3-3-1947 A.N. vide G.O.Ms.No.1307 Education dated 24-5-1948. I, therefore, recommend that Mrs. Devaki Damodaram may be confirmed in the post from 15-6-1949, the date of the retirement of T.J. Cleetus.

J.M.Lobo Prabhu Esq., I.C.S.,
Secretary to Government,

THE A.G. may be requested to verify whether the date of the vacancy that occurred on Mrs. T.J.

(M)

Substantive vacancies in the Collegiate Section of the M.E.S. should be filled alternately by direct recruitment and by transfer from the M.E.S.S.

There were 3 permanent posts of Lecturers in History in the Women's Branch. One of them fell substantively vacant. It was the first vacancy in the History Unit. It was reserved to be filled by direct recruitment and Smt. M. Achaya was recruited against it.

One of the 3 posts was subsequently abolished. The Reduction in the Cadres of Services Rules at "U" were applied to the abolition. Consequently, Smt. Achaya who happened to be the juniormost in the Unit was ousted. Smt. Devaki Damodaran, who had been offg. in non-permanent vacancies, having been apptd. to the service by transfer from the M.E.S.S., was continued in the service by virtue of her seniority over Smt. Achaya.

Since the discharge of Smt. Achaya, the non-permanent vacancy reld. to above has become substantive consequent on the retirement of a permanent Lecturer, Smt. T.J. Cleetus. The question arises as to how this substantive vacancy shd. be filled.

The Dir. says that the vacancy, being the second one (meaning that the previous vacancy was filled by ~~transfer~~ direct recruitment), may be filled by transfer and that Smt. Devaki Damodaran, who has ~~been~~ completed her probation, may be confirmed therein. In the previous vacancy, Smt. Achaya was not confirmed; no post now stands reserved, either, for her confirmation (tho' it was not specifically understood that the post abolished was the one against which she had been recruited). Therefore, the reason - A above - given by the Dir. for his proposal is not correct. The method of recruitment for Smt. Cleetus' vacancy shd. be determined as if it is the first vacancy in the Unit. This notwithstanding, the Dir.'s proposal can be agreed to as the rotation for a Unit can be started either with direct recruitment or with transfer. ^{acc. as Govt. like} In favour of accepting the Dir.'s proposal, there is the following factor. Supposing 'direct recruitment' -- and not 'transfer' -- is fixed for Smt. Cleetus' vacancy, it is Smt. Achaya to whom the benefit of confirmation therein shd. eventually go. She is of course eligible, under "U", for re-appt. in future. But her initial absorption and retention in the dept. will not be possible until and unless there is another vacancy in which Smt. Devaki Damodaran can be continued, since, under "U", a junior cannot be retained in service (although she is a direct recruit) if the senior is without an appt. Thus, the application of the method 'direct recruitment' to the vacancy will not only not benefit Smt. Achaya materially now; it will prevent the vacancy being availed of by the transferee, Smt. Devaki Damodaran, for her confirmation. The D.I.'s Recommendation may therefore be accepted. Pub.(Ser.) may see before circn.
