Sir,

Sub-- Advance from G.P.Fund to M.Kulandaisamy, Mechanic -on February 1949--amount held under objection.

Ref--Fds.II-A/Edn/977 dated 31-8-49 from the Accountant General-Madras.

I beg to submit that my house was completely burnt by a fire accident. I was rendered homeless and myself and my family had to remain without any shelter from sun and rain. I could not foresee the unexpected expenditure and I had no other means except to go for a loan from my only savings in the Provident Fund Account. The Principal took pity on me and sanctioned the advance and I spent the amount in rebuilding the house. Now the sanction is objected on the basis that the same is not within the rules. The purpose for which I applied for the advance is a bonafide one and I have utilised the amount for the purpose for which it was drawn. But for this advance I might have been rendered homeless. Hence I applied to the Accountant General for ratifying the sanction or to permit me to repay the balance of amount due from me in six monthly instalments.

In his letter cited above (a copy of which is enclosed), I am informed that the Government alone can sanction the recovery in instalments under Rule 15(5) of G.P.F.(Madras) Rules. So I beg to request you to take pity on me and sanction permission to refund the balance of advance in monthly instalments of Rs.25/-.

Yours faithfully

Ref: Application dated 10-2-1949 of Mr. M. Kulandaiswami, Mechanic, Govt. College, Kumbakonam for sanction of an advance of Rs 360/- (Rupees three hundred and sixty only) from the amount at his credit in his G.P.F. Account No. 1707 Edn. to rebuild his house burnt by fire accident recently (last week).

Under Rule 14(1) of the General Provident Fund Rules (Madras) the Principal is pleased to sanction an advance of Rs 360/- (Rupees three hundred and sixty only) to meet his urgent expenses in connection with the rebuilding of his house burnt by fire accident last week, and I am satisfied that the advance is justifiable in view of the reason stated above.

2. The advance will be recovered from his pay in 24 (twenty four) instalments beginning from his pay for Feb. 1949 to be paid in March 1949 at Rs 15/- each p.m. and the interest in the last instalment after complete repayment of the advance.

3. Since the reason is acceptable, the sanction is given as a special case.

2. As the advance applied for is considered very legitimate and of urgent necessity arising from an un-dreamt of and a providential accident of fire-break in which the dwelling house has been destroyed by fire, and as the mechanic a low paid non gazetted servant - has been put to a considerable loss with the necessity of rebuilding his house immediately, I, under the provision of para 2 (last para) of G.O.
4440 Development Department dated 13.9.1947 communicated in Director of Public Instruction's proceedings Rc 2635 E/47 dated 17-10-1947 sanctioned the advance in question for the reconstruction of the house of the Mechanic, which is therefore in accordance with the rules on the subject. (Madras) (Under the power of attesting the sanction with the Government. The petitioner may be informed
3. In these circumstances, I submit that there is no irregular sanction in my opinion to be explained by me.
