Sub. Endowment - administration by treasurer of charitable endowments

Ref: Proceedings No. 255 D/49 dated 4-4-49 of the Director of Public Instruction.

Endowment No. 239 B/48 dated 9-4-49 of D.E.O. North Malabar

The school is managed by the Stanam of the Valiya Rajah of Kuttaparam Kovilakam. The seniormost person of the Rajah family becomes the Valiya Rajah and also the manager of the school.

The present manager is afraid that some one who may not be much interested in the school might come to the stanam at any time, and it is likely that such a person might be inclined to misuse the corpus of the fund in the name of some school requirements.
It is the intention of the management that such a thing should not come to pass and the management insists that the interest alone should be utilised for the improvement of the school.

But the management has no objection to the using of the fund in times of crisis. Whether there is actually a crisis or not should be first decided. The Educational authorities should be first satisfied that there is a crisis and that it can be overcome only by utilising the endowment fund. Subject to this condition the management is prepared to revise his decision.

I would therefore like to know whether such a clause may be inserted.
