Sir,

Sub: Advance - General Provident Fund sanction - request of.

I submit that 139-Janab M. Yousuff Sheriff, a Compositor of this Press has applied for a loan of Rs 288/- repayable in 36 instalments to meet the debts incurred in connection with his wife's prolonged illness from his General Provident Fund Account. The amount to his credit at the date of application is Rs 744/-. He has stated that, in these hard days, he is unable to meet both ends from his salary. His permanent pay is Rs 72/- per month. He had two loans but he has cleared one loan this month. A balance of Rs 80/- and interest is outstanding in respect of his second loan. The present loan has been sanctioned by me under Rule 2 of Section V (Rule 14) of the General Provident Fund Rules.

But the Accountant-General has raised an objection to the effect that during the period of 12 months preceeding the present advance two advances were already outstanding and the present is the third advance and requires the sanction of the next higher authority viz., the Government as per G.O.No.213 Finance, dated 8-4-1941.

Under the circumstances explained above and in as much as only one advance is outstanding to the extent of Rs 80/-, I request that the sanction of advance may please be granted as a special case.
