No. SBC.Gr.VI/50-51. dated 17th October 194/50

Sir,

Sub: Advance - General Provident Fund loan.

I submit that one Sri (166) T.R. Balaji Singh, Imposer of this Press has applied for a loan of Rs.216/- from his General Provident Fund account repayable in 36 instalments to clear off the debts incurred to meet the medical expenses due to prolonged illness of his wife. The amount to his credit on the date of application is Rs.350/-. He states in his application that he is unable to meet these debts from his meagre salary in these hard days. His substantive pay is Rs.58/-per month. He had two loans but he has cleared one loan in August last. An amount of Rs.65/- is outstanding towards repayment of his second advance. The loan has been sanctioned by me for special reasons under Rule 2 of the Fifth Schedule (Rule 14) of the General Provident Fund Rules.

But the Accountant-General has raised an objection to the effect that during the period of 12 months preceding the present advance two advances were already outstanding and the present advance is the third one and requires the sanction of next higher authority viz., the Government as per G.O.No.213, Finance, dated 8-4-1941.

Under the circumstances mentioned above and as he has only one advance outstanding to the extent of Rs.65/- I request that sanction of the advance may please be granted as a special case.
