Sir,

I have the honour to state that besides 13 peons and 2 menials, about 22 temporary coolies on an average per mensem are being employed by this office throughout the year. The number of coolies employed varies from month to month and during the period from January to June every year 30 to 40 coolies are employed and a lesser number thereafter. A lot of confidential work is being done in this office throughout the year and much of it is stationery is handled and unless a strict watch is kept over the menials chances of loss through pilfering will be great. Further, at the time of tabulation of the marks of the S.S.L.C., T.S.L.C. and VIII Standard Public Examinations many unauthorised persons flock to this compound. It is necessary that such persons should be effectively kept away. I, therefore, consider that the post of a sergeant is absolutely essential to keep a vigilant watch, direct and control the peons, menials and casual labourers employed on some job or other. In view of the highly confidential nature of the work that is being carried on at present this supervision is being exercised by the Secretary and Assistant Secretary and Senior Superintendent whose time should be available for better work. It is also essential that the pay of the post should be sufficient to attract the right type of man for the post. In the circumstances, I request that sanction may be accorded for the employment of a first grade sergeant in the scale of Rs.50-3-80 with the usual allowances.

Sir,

Reference - Government Memorandum Number 25346-F/50-2
Education dated 21-9-'50.

There is no sergeant in the Director of Public Instruction's Office and so the question of utilising his services to the Commissioner's Office does not arise.

2. The work turned out by this Office is mostly of a confidential nature and the menials employed in large numbers have to be effectively watched and supervised.

3. In the absence of a sergeant, as pointed out in my letter dated 25-8-'50, the Assistant Secretary and the Manager, whose time should be used to better purpose, have to instruct and watch the work of the peons and coolies.
I request that Government may be pleased to accord sanction for the appointment of a first grade sergeant for this Office.

FINANCE (E.III)

Notes on page 1 above may be perused. Education have supported the proposal of the Commissioner for Government Examinations for the employment of a Sergeant in that office. The extra cost in the proposal works out to Rs. 1,200/- roughly per annum.

The Sergeant now proposed is intended to supervise the work of peons, menials and casual labourers, to check the entry of unauthorised persons into the office compound, and to keep watch over the menials from pilfering valuable stationery etc.

Generally Sergeants are employed in big offices and offices which are scattered in a big compound. It is understood that the office of the C.G.E. is situated in the same premises as D.P.I.'s office. It is not known whether there is a separate Sergeant employed to keep watch over the D.P.I.'s Office. If a Sergeant is already employed in the D.P.I.'s office, it seems there is no necessity for an additional Sergeant to keep watch over the same building unless it is that the C.G.E.'s office is located farther away from the D.P.I.'s office in some other compound to justify the necessity for an additional Sergeant.

Before Finance can agree to the proposal Education may kindly obtain information regarding 'A' and 'B' above.

Please see the letter from the C. G. E. on p 5 of. He has stated that there is no Sergeant employed in the office of the D. P. I. and that therefore the question of utilising his services to keep a watch over the C. G. E.'s Office does not arise.

The file may now be sent to Finance v.o. with reference to their notes on p 2 ante.

Finance (E.III)

(Pre. Fin. note on p. 2 above)

With reference to the remarks of this Deptt. on p. 2 above the C. G. E. has stated that there is no sergeant employed in the D. P. I.'s Office, which is also an important office, it is seen that no need has been felt for a sergeant to ^{keep} watch over unauthorised persons who may enter the premises. It is not clear how the need for a sergeant is felt in the C. G. E.'s Office alone. Moreover, the C. G. E.'s Office is not the only office where work of confidential nature is dealt with. There are offices without sergeants which deal with confidential nature of work. The case for a sergeant in the C. G. E.'s Office does not seem to have been clearly established. Fin. may, therefore, advise that the proposal may be negated.

24-10-50

The real reason for employing a sergeant is that stated at 'y' on P.I.C.F. The circumstances stated at 'x' and 'y' on P.I.C.F. may be treated as specially applicable to the office of the Commissioner for Govt. Exams. justifying the proposal. A sergeant
