Enclosure 132238/SB.249/50 dated 12th October 194/50

Sub: Government Press - Erection of machine -
 Temporary Coolies - Sanction - Solicited.
 Ref: G.O.Ms.No.2047, Edn., dated 15-7-1950.

I submit that I have recently received packages containing four printing machines from United Kingdom. They should be erected as early as possible otherwise there will be loss of interest on capital outlay. For this purpose the services of six Coolies for 3 months are considered necessary.

Sanction accorded in the G.O. cited for the erection of machines expires on 7th November 1950. Erection of machines referred to in my letter No.39585/Accts. dated 3rd July 1950 is expected to be finished on or before the expiry of sanction. I propose to utilise their services for the erection of machines now received from United Kingdom for three months. In the circumstances I request that Government may be pleased to accord sanction for the continuance of the six coolies for a further period of 3 months or till the necessity ceases which ever is earlier from 8th November 1950 on a pay of Rs.13-8-0 plus allowances not exceeding the prevailing market rate.

The expenditure is debitable to "56. Stationery and Printing - (d) Government Press - C. Mechanical Branch - Other charges - Honoraria and contingencies".
