Bureau and the attender operating the Gestetner machine have not been supplied with overcoats for use, which are necessary for laboratory work. The Superintendent of Stationery who was addressed in the matter states that the sanction of Government may be obtained. It is therefore requested that Government may be placed to sanction the supply of two White overcoats to each per annum for the staff consisting of one chemical assistant, three laboratory assistants and two laboratory attendants for the laboratory and one attender for the Gestetner machine.
