ANNAMALAI UNIVERSITY

9th September, 1950.

Ref. No. 16593/BI-50.

From

THE REGISTRAR,
ANNAMALAI UNIVERSITY,
ANNAMALAINAGAR.

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Education Department,
Fort St. George,
M A D R A S.

Sir,

Sub: Training College - Proposal to start at the University -
Request for financial aid.

With a view to meeting the existing demand for a large number of trained teachers, it is learnt that the Government of Madras are encouraging private effort to establish training Colleges in the State and are also contemplating to introduce shift system in the existing Teachers' Training Colleges under the control of the Government to increase the intake of students and output of trained graduates every year. With the opening of more high schools throughout the state and the consequent rush of admission to all colleges, the number of graduates desiring to be trained for the teaching profession to meet the needs of high schools is on the increase to justify the need for more training colleges in the State. The Sargeant's Scheme and the subsequent report of the Commission on University Education laid great emphasis on the immediate need for training more teachers in whose hands the responsibility of education in all stages should be placed. This University would be glad to contribute its share towards this programme of educational reconstruction with the necessary financial assistance in aid of its proposal to start a training college under the control of this University.

I need not mention that this University has all the facilities for starting a training college. There are two high schools one in Annamalainagar itself and the other in Chidambaram managed by the family of the Rajah of Chettinad. These two high schools may very well be attached to the proposed training college for purposes of observation and criticism classes. As for building, the University will take all steps necessary to secure temporarily with the help of the revenue authorities some decent building in the town to house the training college close to Dewan Bahadur Ramaswami Chettiar's High School in Chidambaram.

I may add that, as early as 1934 a proposal for starting a Training College was under consideration and due to financial reasons the proposal had to be dropped. I hope that in the present circumstances set forth above, the Government would be pleased to view this application

The proposal for the opening of a Training College by the Annamalai University is not new. It was considered on two occasions in the past i.e. in 1945 and 1947 and on both the occasions the proposal was deferred by the Government vide Education and Public Health Department letters No. 841 Edn. dt. 1-6-45 and 2218 Edn. dt. 16-10-47. P3642 A

2. Till last year there were the following Training Colleges in the State, with the sanctioned strength noted against each.

1. Government Training College, Rajahmundry.	100
2. St. Joseph's Training College, Guntur.	30
3. Teachers' College, Saidapet.	150
4. Lady Willingdon Training College, Madras.	110
5. Meston Training College.	60
6. St. Christopher's Training College, Madras.	50
7. St. Anne's Training College, Mangalore.	30.

Due to the dearth of trained Graduates 7 new Training Colleges have been opened in the State in the current year.

NAME OF COLLEGE.

Sanctioned Strength.

1. Government Training College, Palghat.	70.
2. " " " Mangalore.	50
3. Basic Training College Perianaickenpalayam.	50.
4. Andhra Christian College, Guntur.	75.
5. Maharaja's College Vizianagaram.	50.
6. Alagappa Chettaiar College Karaikudi.	50
7. St. Xavier's College, Palamcottah.	40.

3. It is expected that the new colleges opened this year would meet the requirements of the High Schools in the State and that another Training College in the Annamalai University would appear to be superfluous. It is however open to the Annamalai University to start a training College, if it likes. But for the reasons stated above it is not expedient to make any grant to the University for this purpose.

Yours faithfully,

M. S. Srinivasan
