G.O.No. 72 G.3(3)/50 dated 25--x--1950.

Sir,

Sub: LIBRARIAN--Appointment of Librarians--Pri. B. Pundalika
Phenoy, trained Librarian--Presidency College, Madras--
Designation of appointment--Acceptance.

Ref: G.O.No. 1419 Education dated 6--5--49 and
Ms. No. 2337 Education dated 19--7--49.

I have the honour to state that Pri. B. Pundalika Phenoy is one of the four candidates selected and appointed as temporary Librarian in the Madras General Subordinate service against the posts sanctioned in G.O.No. 2337 Education dated 19--7--49. With reference to the ad hoc rules governing the post, he was deputed, on appointment, to undergo the Diploma course in Library Science in the University of Madras. He joined the course on 13-7-49 and successfully completed the same on 27-4-50. Thereafter he was posted to work as Librarian in the Presidency College, Madras and he continued in that college till 30--9--50. In his letter dated 26--9--50 (copy enclosed) Pri. Pundalika Phenoy has resigned his temporary appointment and has also handed over a sum of Rs. 1,000/- for releasing him from the terms of the bond executed by him with reference to Rule 9 of the ad hoc rules governing the post issued in G. O.No. 1419 Education dated 6--5--49.

2. The Bond executed by Pri. Phenoy is submitted herewith. Although according to clause (iii) of Rule 9 of the ad hoc rules, a candidate failing to fulfil the conditions specified, has to refund to the Government, the total amount drawn by him as pay and allowances, yet the intention is that the candidate should refund to the Government only that amount which he received as pay and allowances during the period of his training in the University of Madras. While obtaining a draft of the Bond the Government Solicitor was furnished with a copy of the Ad Hoc rules and consulted whether the boarding and lodging expenses, tuition and examination fees paid to the temporary Librarians should be included along with the pay and allowances given to them. He replied that for purposes of agreement, only pay and allowances should be taken into account. So, considering that the period that the temporary Librarians spend for their course is a little less than ten months (i.e. from about the middle of July to the end of April of the following year) the amount for the agreement was fixed at Rs.1,000/- (Rs. One thousand). This sum refers to the amount paid to the Librarian during the period he underwent the Diploma course in Library science. That period was stated in the agreement as the period of study, training and service. It is so practical training prescribed for the Diploma and was also in service under Government. The temporary Librarian was first entertained in service and then only he was deputed to undergo the course. In the above circumstances the sum of Rs. 1,000/- being the approximate amount a candidate would receive during the period he undergoes Diploma course in Library science, was fixed as the maximum amount refundable and the bond was got executed by the candidates selected and appointed.

3. Pri. B. Pundalika Phenoy joined as Librarian in the Presidency College, Madras on 28--4--50 and till 27--4--50 he was under training. The total amount actually received by him till 27--4--50 towards pay and allowances comes to Rs. 987--5--0 (excluding expenses met by Government towards his tuition fees, text-books and examination fees). The Books he purchased for his use at Government cost have been returned to this office. In view of the fact that Pri. Pundalika Phenoy has already refunded the maximum sum specified in the Bond (viz., Rs. 1,000/-) the terms of the bond are satisfied and I, therefore, request that the Government may be pleased to permit me to accept his resignation with effect from 1-x-50 and also allow me to return to him the Bond, duly cancelled.

4. As rule 9 of the ad hoc rules issued in G. O. Ms. No. 1419 Education dated 6--5--1949 as at present worded, does not carry out the intentions expressed in para 2 of this letter correctly, I shall submit separately necessary draft amendments to that rule for the orders of Government.

Yours faithfully,
W. A. H. ...
for Director of Public Instruction.

From the D.P.I., No. 72-C3(3)/50 dated 25-10-50.

Sub:- Libraries - Sri B. Pundalika Shenoy, trained librarian, Presidency College, Madras - Resignation - Acceptance.

The D.P.I. requests Govt. that he may be permitted to accept the resignation of Sri B. Pundalika Shenoy, one of the candidates selected and appointed as temporary Librarian in the Madras Educational Subordinate Service, with effect from 1-10-50 and to return the bond executed by him duly cancelled.

2. Sri Pundalika Shenoy was deputed, on appointment as temporary librarian on Rs. 75-5-145 plus usual allowances, to undergo the Diploma course in Library Science in the University of Madras. He joined the course on 13-7-49 and successfully completed the same on 27-4-50. Thereafter he was posted as Librarian in the Presidency College, Madras, and he continued in that post till 30-9-50. He tendered his resignation on 26-9-50 after handing over a sum of Rs.1,000/- for relieving him from the terms of the Bond executed by him with reference to rule 9 of the Ad hoc rules governing the post.

3. Under rule 9 of the ad hoc rules appended to G.O. Ms. No.1419, Edn., dated 6-5-49, in case a candidate selected for the post of temporary librarian fails to fulfil the conditions specified in sub-clauses (i) and (ii) of that rule, he should refund to the Provincial Govt. the total amount drawn by him under rule 8 - namely, monthly ~~initial~~ pay calculated in the scale of Rs.75-5-145 plus the usual ~~allow~~ allowances.

4. But according to the bond executed by the candidate in question, the maximum amount payable by the candidate for not fulfilling the terms of the bond is given at Rs.1,000/- and such smaller sum. In this case, according to the terms of rule 9 of the ad hoc rules, the amount recoverable from the candidate will be more than Rs.1,000/-. He joined duty as tempy. librarian on 13-7-49 and quitted on 30-9-50.

The amount to be recovered will certainly be higher than Rs.1,000/- fixed in the Bond. The D.P.I. himself accepts that his action in recovering only Rs.1,000/- will not be in accordance with the terms of rule 9 of the ad hoc rules and he states that he will submit separately necessary draft amendments to this rule for the orders of Government.

5 In the circumstances, it is for consideration whether the D.P.I.'s proposal to release Sri Pundalika Shenoy from the terms of the bond on receipt of Rs.1,000/- ^{only} may be agreed to. Legal and Finance may see for remarks.
