I was working as a part-time music mistress in the above school from June 1948 on Rs. 20/- per mensem and from 20-6-1949 I have been appointed as a full time music mistress in the school on Rs. 25/- per mensem plus D.A. The post of music assistant for the school was sanctioned for the school in the grade Rs. 40-1½-70 and I was not fully qualified at the time of appointment having only passed the lower grade Government Examination in Music my pay was fixed at Rs. 25/- I have since passed the Government Higher Grade Examination in Music (vide Fort St. George Gazette Part 1 B Edn. dated 28-3-1950 PP 14 No. 3489 V.R.Rajeswari-Salem centre) and I submit this petition for orders refixing my substantive pay in the grade 40-1½-70.

In this connection I beg to submit that the Music Mistress of the Govt. Victory Memorial Blind School who is of exactly similar qualifications as myself is paid Rs. 45/- plus D.A. per mensem. My work is full-timed having 25 working hours per week and I have been teaching all the high school classes Forms IV to VI. Apart from this regular work I am also having hobby classes in music for Form Five for three days in the week out of school hours. Teaching of Music, it is submitted calls for extra physical strain and I have always discharged my duties to the complete satisfaction of my superiors.

I am also anxious to appear for the diploma examination in Music of the Madras University but I do not have the necessary financial resources for the same.

I, therefore humbly pray that the President may be pleased to refix my salary at such amount p.m. as he may deem just in the circumstances submitted above.
