3. In G.O. No.1885 Edn., dated 29-7-1948, five permanent posts in the English Unit of the Madras Edl. Service (one in each of the five colleges, namely, Presidency College, Government Arts Colleges at Rajahmundry, Anantapur, Kumbakonam and Palghat) were converted into posts of Assistant Professors and Assistant Lecturers in the Madras Edl. Subordinate Service thus reducing the number of permanent gazetted posts in the English Unit from 15 to 10. Consequent on the abolition of the above posts, the selections made for appointment by direct recruitment to vacancies 1, 2, 3 and 6 were dropped in order that transferee-officers might not be affected adversely - vide G.O. Ms.No.2181 Edn., dated 3-9-1948. The abolition of the permanent posts necessitates certain transfers of liens so that each of the five colleges mentioned above may have one substantive post less in the English Unit in the Madras Educational Service. The transfers of liens may be effected in such a way that the vacanies originally reserved to be filled by direct recruitment are shown against the posts ordered to be abolished with a view to safeguarding the interests of the transferee-officers. Accordingly, I submit the following recommendations in regard to transfers of liens:-

(a) Sri V.K. Ayyappan Pillai, Additional Professor of English and Officiating Professor of English, Presidency College, Madras to be Professor of English in the same college with effect from 16-12-1943.

(b) Sri R.H.P. Holman, Junior Professor of English now on other duty as Principal, Government College, Mercara under the Government of India, to be Additional Professor of English, Presidency College, Madras, with effect from 16-12-1943, without prejudice to his present appointment under the Government of India.

In this connection I may submit that in their letter Ref.No. 64935-A.14 Edn., dated 4th March 1950, the Government have already addressed the Public Service Commission, Madras, to advertise the post of Chief Professor of English, Presidency College, Madras. Should a qualified and suitable candidate be selected and appointed as Chief Professor, then the lien of Sri V.K. Ayyappan Pillai may be re-transferred to the post of Additional Professor of English and the lien of Sri R.H.P. Holman may be transferred to the Administrative section of the Madras Educational Service (e.g., to the post of Inspector of Anglo-Indian schools).

If the lien of Sri R.H.P. Holman is transferred as suggested above, the post of Junior Professor of English will be rendered substantively vacant from 16-12-1943. This vacancy may be deemed to have been reserved to be filled by direct recruitment (war service candidate) and the reservation deemed to have lapsed with the abolition of the post. The post of Junior Professor has remained unfilled from 12-7-1948.

(c) Dr. I.S. Peter, Lecturer in English, Government College, Kumbakonam may be deemed to have substantively held the post of Lecturer in English, Government Training College, Rajahmundry from 7-2-1946. The vacancy No.3 reserved to be filled by direct recruitment of a war service candidate in the latter college may be deemed to have arisen in the Government College, Kumbakonam on 7-2-1946. The reservation of this vacancy for direct recruitment of a war service candidate may be considered to have lapsed with the abolition of the Second Lecturer in English, Govt. College, Kumbakonam.

(d) The vacancy in the Government Victoria College, Palghat caused by the transfer of lien of Sri V.K. Krishna Menon to the Administrative section may be deemed to have arisen in the Government Arts College, Anantapur on 4-4-1948 and the reservation thereof (i.e., vacancy No.10) for direct recruitment be considered to have lapsed with the abolition of the second Lecturer in English, Government Arts College, Anantapur. The effect of this will be that the post of Lecturer in English, Government Victoria College, Palghat, will have to be taken to have fallen vacant substantively from 17-12-1948 on the retirement of Sri N.R. Kedari Rao from service.

Vacancies Nos. 1, 2, 3, 6 and 8 (as modified by the proposals at (a), (b), (c) and (d) above) fall against the posts ordered to be abolished in G.O. No.1885 Edn., dated 29-7-1948. As these five substantive vacancies have been originally reserved to be filled by direct recruitment, the reservation may be deemed to have lapsed with the abolition of the five posts.

4. Vacanices Nos. 4, 5, 7, 9 and 10 remain to be filled substantively. I submit the following proposals for filling them substantively:-

(i) Vacancy No.4:- (Lecturer in English, Teachers' College, Saidapet) - According to rotation, this vacancy has to be filled substantively by the confirmation of a direct recruit. Sri V. Gopalan Nair, Officiating Lecturer in English, Government College, Kumbakonam has been recruited against this vacancy. He joined duty in the Madras Edl. Service on 22-8-1947. Government have already been requested to treat the period of the break in his officiating service from 8-3-1949 to 3-4-1949 as joining time and accordingly recommendations have been made for declaring him to have satisfactorily completed his probation in Category 5 of Class III of the Madras Edl. Service on 22-8-1949 - vide my letters to Government R.C.No.2756 C1/48 dated 20-2-1950 and R.C.No.353 C1/50 dated 23-2-1950. Subject to the acceptance of the above proposals, I recommend that Sri V. Gopalan Nair, Officiating Lecturer in English, Government College, Kumbakonam may be confirmed as Lecturer in English, Teachers' College, Saidapet with effect from 22-8-1947, without prejudice to his present officiating appointment.

(ii) Vacancies Nos.5, 7 and 9:- These three vacancies have to be filled substantively by officers recruited by transfer. Among such transferee-officers the following are the seniormost who have to be considered for confirmation in these three vacancies.

Name.	Date of completion of probation in the category.	Authority.
1. Sri S. Narasimha Ayyangar	9-10-1945 A.N.	G.O.No.785 Edn., dated 11-4-1946.
2. Sri B. Raghava Baliga	18--3-1947 A.N.	G.O.No.1194 Edn., dated 10-6-1947.
3. Sri C.R. Venkatachalam	30--7-1948	Vide my letter R.C.No. 353 C1/50 dated 23-2-250.

I recommend that --

(1) Sri S. Narasimha Ayyangar, Officiating Lecturer in English, Govt. Training College, Rajahmundry may be confirmed as Lecturer in English, Government College, Kumbakonam with effect from 1-10-47 without prejudice to his present officiating appointment;

(2) Sri B. Raghava Baliga, Officiating Additional Professor of English, Presidency College, Madras, may be confirmed as Lecturer in English, Government Arts College, Rajahmundry with effect from 2-4-1948 without prejudice to his present officiating appointment; and

(3) Sri C.R. Venkatachalam, Officiating Lecturer in English, Government Arts College, Coimbatore may be confirmed as Lecturer in English, Government Training College, Rajahmundry with effect from 15-8-1948 without prejudice to his present officiating appointment.

(iii) Vacancy No.10:- This vacancy on the retirement of Sri N.R. Kedari Rao should be deemed to have arisen in the Govt. Victoria College, Palghat with effect from 17-12-1948 and should be reserved to be filled by Direct recruitment.

5. The position in regard to substantive posts in the English Unit of the Madras Educational Service as it will be if the proposals submitted herein are accepted by Government is shown in the enclosed statement.

Ref:- From the DPI, U.O.No.13/50, d/- 25-3-50.

The D.P.I. may be requested (U.O.) to consider the following points and send his remarks with, if necy., revised proposals:-

(1) It is true that the selection of ~~direct recruitment of three~~ three war service candidates and one non-war service candidate was dropped for the reason that the appt. of those direct recruits, if ordered, together with the abolition of as many as seven posts in the English Unit, would cause hardship to the transferee-officers. But it was not decided that the posts abolished should all be taken to be those reserved for direct recruitment. Should it not be deemed that half the no. of posts abolished were those reserved for direct recruitment and the other half those reserved for transfer? Or why should not the posts abolished be debited against the total no. of vacant posts and the methods of recruitment for the remaining vacancies fixed anew the usual order of rotation - viz., 1 for direct recruitment and 1 for transfer, being applied?

(2) How proposals (c) and (d) in para 3 of the U.O. note cited ~~should be taken to~~ effect the abolition of 4 posts - one/each of the Govt. Arts colleges at Palghat, Anantapur, Kumbakonam and Rajahmundry. Further elucidation is necy.

(3) Whether the post of Lecturer in the Govt. Arts College, Coimbatore, which was also abolished, was a tempy. post.

2. The Dir. may also be informed incidentally that in view of the orders issued in G.O.No.1386-Edn., d/- 29-4-52, Sri V.Gopalan Nair can be actually confirmed only from 4-4-49 - tho' his entire previous service will count for pension. The question of declaring that officer and Sri C.R.Venkatachalam to have satisfactorily completed their probation is under separate consideration.

OFFICE OF THE
DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

U.O. Reply CL.No. 13/50, Dated 16th August, 1950.

Subject:- Madras Educational Service - Collegiate Section - English Unit - Transfers of liens and confirmations.

Reference:- Government U.O. Note No.4997 A.1 Education, dated 12th May 1950.

p.b ank

The points raised in the above U.O. Note were considered and I submit the following remarks.

2. As regards the query why half the number of posts abolished should not be counted against posts reserved for direct recruitment and the other half counted against those reserved for transfer, I may submit that even while there were candidates actually selected and available for appointment after direct recruitment, it was not suggested then that the selection of only half the number of direct recruits should be cancelled and the rest appointed. Because as many as five permanent posts in the English Unit had been ordered to be abolished, expediency required that all the 4 Direct recruitments made already should be cancelled, and thus in a way it was already accepted by Government that the abolished posts should be counted towards the posts reserved for direct recruitment. There appears to be no question now of dividing the 5 abolished posts for debiting some against vacancies reserved for direct recruitment and some others against those reserved for recruitment by transfer. By debiting all the abolished posts against vacancies reserved for direct recruitment, it cannot be stated that the transferee-Officers are gaining any undue advantage. Such a course will merely save them from undue hardship and disappointment which the abolition of so large large a number of posts in this Unit would have otherwise caused. As the intention of Government is also to avoid such undue hardship and disappointment to transferee-Officers the first of the suggestions contained in sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 1 of the U.O. Note of the Secretariat need not be accepted.

p.6 ante

As regards the alternative suggestion contained in sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 1 of the Secretariat U.O. Note, I submit that there is not much difference, in effect, between this suggestion and the proposals already submitted in my ~~U.O.~~ letter CL. No.13/50, dated 25-3-1950. There are at present 10 substantive vacancies in the English Unit. - After debiting the 5 abolished posts against the ~~total number~~ first five of substantive vacancies, there remain 5 vacancies for which method of recruitment has to be determined. If the first vacancy is started with 'Transfer' and the next assigned for 'Direct Recruitment' and so on, in accordance with the rotation of recruitment, three of the 5 posts will go for transferee-Officers and the rest (2 posts) will have to be reserved for direct recruits. This is exactly what has happened according to my proposal already submitted to Government -- the only difference being that the dates of the vacancies assigned for - transferee-Officers will slightly be changed if the alternative suggestion in the Government U.O. Note is accepted. The following statement shows the position in regard method of recruitment according to the ~~three~~ proposals already submitted by me and according to the alternative suggestion made by Government.

5. Lecturer, Govt.College, Kumbakonam. (Janab Md.Aslam.)	1-10-47	Transfer.	"
6. Lecturer, Govt. Arts College, Rajahmundry. (Sri P.R.Krishnaswami)	29--1-48	D.R. (Ordy.) (Adjust against abolished post)	Transfer.
7. Lecturer, Govt.Arts College, Rajahmundry. (Sri N. Ramani)	2--4--48	Transfer.	D.R. (Ordy.) (Confirm Sri V.Gopalan Nair)
8. Lecturer, Govt.Victoria Col., Palghat. (Sri V.K.Krishna Menon)	4--4--48	D.R. (Ordy.) (Adjust against abolished post.)	Transfer.
9. Lecturer, Govt. College, Kumbakonam: (Dr. I.S. Peter).	15--8--48	Transfer.	D.R. (Ordy.)
10. Lecturer, Govt. Arts College, Anantapur: (Sri N.R.Kedari Rao)	17-12--48	D.R. (Ordy.) (To be recruited)	Transfer.

Note: D.R. (W.S.C.) = Direct Recruitment (War Service Candidate)
D.R. (Ordy.) = Direct Recruitment (Ordinary).

As may be seen from the above statement, ~~that~~ there is not much difference between the proposal already submitted by me and the alternative suggestion made in the Government's U.O. Note, and as the object is that the abolition of so large a number of posts should not cause undue hardship and disappointment to members already in service, I request that the Government may be pleased to accept the proposals already submitted by me and show the five abolished posts against the 5 substantive vacancies reserved for direct recruitment. If this is accepted, besides the vacancy reserved for the confirmation of Sri V. Gopalan Nair (a direct recruit), there will be another vacancy for direct recruitment.

p.6 ante

No.4 above

3. Point (2) in the Government U.O. Note: Proposals (c) and (d) in para 3 of my letter CL.No.13/50, dated 25-3-50 will effect the abolition of 4 posts - one in each of the Government Arts Colleges at Palghat, Anantapur, Kumbakonam and Rajahmundry, as explained below.

The second Lecturer's posts in English in the above four Colleges were abolished in G.O. No. Ms. 1885 Edn., dated 29th July 1948. If it is accepted that the abolished posts should be shown against the vacancies reserved for Direct recruitment, the following transfers of lien would have been effected even then:-

(1) Government College, Kumbakonam: The lien of Dr. I.S. Peter would have been shifted from the post of Lecturer in English, Government College, Kumbakonam to the post of Lecturer in English, Government Training College, Rajahmundry, with effect from 7-2-1946, thereby rendering the post at Kumbakonam substantively vacant from ~~7-2-1946~~ 1-7-48. As the vacancy which arose on 7-2-1946 was reserved for Direct recruitment (War Service Candidate) this would have ceased to exist from July 1948, on abolition of the post. The other post in the Kumbakonam College, viz., that held by Janab Muhammad Aslam and which fell substantively vacant from 1-10-1947 on his resignation, would be reserved for being filled by transfer.

(2) Government Arts College, Anantapur: The lien of Sri N.R. Kedari Rao, permanent Lecturer in English, Government Arts College, Anantapur, would have been shifted to Government Victoria College, Palghat from 4-4-1948 in the place of Sri V.K.Krishna Menon. The substantive vacancy caused by the transfer of lien of Sri V.K.Krishna Menon to the Administrative Section and reserved for Direct recruitment would have been shown as having arisen in the post of Lecturer in English, Government Arts College, Anantapur and would have been reserved for Direct recruitment. With the abolition of the post in ~~July~~ 1948, this reservation for direct recruitment would have lapsed and Sri K.P. Govinda Menon will be left the only substantive Lecturer in English in the Government Arts College, Anantapur.

(3) Government Arts College, Rajahmundry: The two posts of Lecturers in English in the Government Arts College, Rajahmundry, fell vacant from 29-1-1948 and 2-4-1948 consequent on the retirement of Sri P.R. Krishnaswami Ayyangar and Sri N. Ramani. The vacancy of Sri P.R. Krishnaswami Ayyangar was reserved for Direct recruitment (Ordinary). With the abolition of one of the two substantive posts of Lecturers in English, the post which was reserved for Direct Recruitment (viz., the vacancy of Sri P.R.Krishnaswami Ayyangar) may be deemed to have been abolished and the direct recruitment dropped. The only substantive post of Lecturer in English left will be the one held by Sri N. Ramani and in that post the confirmation of Sri B. Raghava Baliga has already been recommended.

(4) Government Victoria College, Palghat: One of the two posts of Lecturers in English in the above College fell vacant from 10-8-1944 consequent on the retirement of Sri P.V. Alexander. This vacancy had been reserved for Direct recruitment. On the abolition of one of the two posts of Lecturers in English in this College in July 1948 the vacancy reserved for Direct Recruitment of a War Service Candidate (viz., that of Sri P.V. Alexander) may be deemed to have been abolished. The other post of Lecturer in English would have been held substantive in July 1948 (at the time of abolition of posts) by Sri Sri N.R. Kedari Rao whose lien would have been transferred from the Government Arts College, Anantapur with effect from 4-4-1948.--vide (1) above.

4. Point No. (3) in the Government U.O. Note: The post of Lecturer in English in the Government Arts College, Coimbatore, ~~is~~ which was abolished, was a temporary one.

5. A Statement showing all the permanent posts that existed in each College before the issue of G.O.No. 1885 Edn., dated 29-7-1948 and the Officers who were holding them is enclosed. Another statement showing the vacancies in the English Unit as a whole including the posts abolished and the methods of recruitment ~~fixed~~ for them is also submitted herewith, as desired.
