Rc.No.1362 W2/50 dated 16th October 1950.

Sir,

Sub:--War--Educational concessions to children and dependants of soldiers--Grant to a nominee in a Marumakkathayam family.

1. According to G.O.No.610 Education dated 20-4-45, in the case of a Marumakkathayam family if a member of a Defence Service personnel has himself no children, he can nominate one person from the family to which he belongs for the concessions. As per G.O.No.1915 Education dated 3-8-48, the concessions to the nominee will cease when a child is born to the soldier.

2. The Secretary, Madras State Sailors Soldiers and Air-men Board requests to be informed whether the concessions to the nominee in a Marumakkathayam family which were stopped because of the birth of a child to the soldier can be revived if the child subsequently dies. A copy of his letter No. Rc.3250/50 -C dated 19-9-50 is enclosed. I consider that the suggestion of the Secretary is reasonable. I request to be informed whether the nominee can be granted the educational concessions on the death of the child of the soldier, either as renewal in case the nominee had not completed a stage in education with reference to G.O. No.2230 Education dated 11-7-49 or as fresh case under G.O.No.1379 Education dated 27-6-50 if a stage had already been completed.

Yours faithfully,

K. Sankaranarayanan

Sub:--War--Educational concessions to dependant of a Serving Soldier--No.62715 Hav. Clerk U.V. Nair--Granted to a nephew in a Marumakkathayam family--discontinued on the birth of a child to the soldier subsequent death of the child--question of revival of the concessions.

I am to bring the following case to your kind notice for a decision on the question of revival of educational concessions to a nephew in a marumakkathayam family consequent on the death of the child of a soldier:-

No.62715 Hav. Clerk U.V. Nair, a serving soldier, nominated his nephew U.P. Nair for educational concessions under G.O.No.610, Education dated 20-4-45 and the nominee was getting the concessions during 1947-48 and 1948-49 in the Malabar Christian College School, Calicut. A child was born to the serving soldier in January 1949 and an application for renewal of the concessions for 1949-50 was rejected on this ground. The child however died on 23-10-49. Even when this fact was brought to the notice of the District Educational Officer, N.Malabar, the District Educational Officer did not revive the concessions, vide his endorsement No.N.Dis.137-EC/49 dated 5-1-50. The nominee has therefore not been getting the concessions during 1949-50 and 1950-51 and the Officer Commanding of the Unit wherein the soldier is serving has raised the question why the concessions should not be revived in view of the subsequent death of the soldier's child.

The matter was referred to the District Soldiers' Sailors' and Airmen's Board, Malabar, for purposes of consulting the District Educational Officer, Vide Paragraph 2 of enclosed copy of this Board's letter No.3250/50 -C dated 1-8-50.

In reply, this Board's attention has been invited to G.O.No.1915, Education, dated 3-8-48 wherein it is laid down that the concessions should cease when a child is born to the member who made the nomination. It has also been reported that the District Educational Officer is not able to give a definite ruling in this case as no mention has been made in the G.O. as to whether a concession to the nominee which was stopped on the birth of a child to the soldier could be revived on the death of the child.

This Board is not aware whether any G.O. exists providing for revival of the concessions to the nominee on the death of a soldier's child. As the object of the rules in G.O. No.610, Education, dated 20-4-45 regarding nomination in the case of a Marumakkathayam family seems to be that both the nominee and the soldier's child should not get the concessions, it may not be the intention of the Government to deprive the nominee of the concessions till the child (subsequently born to the soldier) attains school-going age, or, at any rate, even after the death of the child. The case in question belongs to the latter category and there might well be many such cases in this State.

I am therefore to request that, in case there are no Government Orders permitting revival of the concessions in such cases, you may be pleased to address the Government in the matter and communicate their decision to this Board as early as possible, either on the general question involved or at least in this case in particular as a special case due to the hardship caused to the serving soldier.

to this Board copy to the D.S.S. & A Board, Malabar.

The attention of the Secretary, D.S.S. & A Board, Malabar is invited to the letter cited above. It is pointed out by the O.C. that due verification was not made by the D.S.S.&A Board and that had the death of the child of the ex-serviceman been verified and reported, the delay in the grant of the educational concessions would not have taken place.

The object of the rules in G.O.No.610, Education dated 20-4-45 regarding nomination in the case of a marumakathayam family seems to be that both the nominee (sister's child) and the soldier's child grows up to school-going age. The Secretary is requested to contact the District Educational Officer in the matter, ascertain his views and see, that, if admissible, the concessions are granted for 1948-49 and 1949-50, or at any rate, with effect from the date of death, and also for the period prior to the birth of the soldier's child. The result of the action taken may be reported to this Board at an early date.

War - Educational Concessions to children and dependants of soldiers - Grant to a nominee in a Marumakkathayam family.

From the Secretary, Madras State Soldiers' Sailors' and Airmen's Board No.3250/50 dated 19-9-1950.

From the D.P.I. No.1862 W2/50 dated 16-10-1950.

Under the note (iii) to instruction 1 of the instructions prescribed in G.O.No.610 Education, d/20-4-45, for the grant of educational concessions to the children and dependants of Defence Service personnel, in the case of Marumakkathayam family, if the members concerned of a Defence Service has himself no children he may nominate one person from the family to which he belongs for the concession. In 1948 representations were made to the Govt. that where a child is born to a Defence Service personnel after he had nominated another person from the same family to which he belonged for the concessions admissible under G.O.No.610 Edn., dated 20-4-45, the concession to the nominee should be continued until the child grew up to the school going age and availed itself of the concessions or until the "nominee" completed his educational career. The Govt. considered these representations and held the view that the concession to the nominee should cease when a child was born to the member who made the nomination. The D.P.I. had already been stopping the concession to the nominees on the birth of a child to the person who made the nomination and the Govt. ratified and confirmed the practice adopted by the Director. Orders were accordingly issued in G.O.No. 1915 Edn., dated 3-8-1948. In the same order it was also held that a soldier who was married but had no child could make a nomination but that the nominee will cease to be eligible for the concession as soon as a child was born to him. It was also held that a soldier having a child of his own could not make a nomination of anybody in preference to his own child and that all children should be eligible for the concession irrespective of the fact whether the nominee had partially or fully availed himself of the concessions already. The D.P.I. now wishes to know whether the concessions to the nominee in a Marumakkathayam family which was stopped because of the birth of a child to the Defence Service personnel himself could be revived if the child subsequently died. A case like this has not so far arisen and probably this is the first case.

The orders in G.O.No.1915 Education, dated 3-8-1948, prevented the enjoyment of the educational concessions by the nominee only so long as there was a child of the Defence Service personnel irrespective of the fact whether the child itself was enjoying the concessions or not. But so long as there ~~was~~ ^{is} no child for the Defence Service personnel, the nominee ~~was~~ ^{seems} entitled to the enjoyment of the educational concessions. In the case under consideration since the child is already dead, the nominee may be permitted to enjoy the educational concessions till perhaps another child is born to the Defence Service personnel.

be revived if that child subsequently dies. The D.P.I. has suggested that these concessions might be treated either as a renewal in case the nominee had not completed a stage in education, under G.O. no. 2230 E & P.H. dated 11-7-49 or as a fresh case under G.O. no. 1876 Edn. dated 27-6-50, if a stage has already been completed. In the latter case, as the concessions have to be granted from the P.W.S.R. Fund, this Dept. may suggest that the concurrence of the Hon'g. Secy. P.W.S.R. Fund may also be obtained in the matter.

2. The nominee of the soldier ^{in question} was granted educational concessions during the years 1947-48 and 1948-49. The concessions were not continued for the year 1949-50, since a child was born to the soldier in January '49. The child died in October '49. It is now proposed to renew the concessions to the nominee since the child has died. It may be noted that the concessions are available only to children born before the 28th February '47. Since the child was born after 28-2-47, it would not have become eligible for the concessions even ^{if} it had survived. There is therefore no question of renewing the concessions sanctioned to the nominee consequent on the death of the child. But the case of the nominee seems to be a hard one since the birth of a child, which did not survive, has deprived him of the concessions. The expenditure on the grant of educational concessions to cases ^{of pupils} who apply for the concessions for the first time and those who had finished a particular stage of their education during the year 1949-50 and who want to continue their education during the year 50-51 is now met by the P.W.S.R. Fund. Finance may advise that the Secretary P.W.S.R. Fund may be requested to consider whether ~~the~~ ^{educational} concessions can be granted to the nominee of the soldier in question under the above scheme ~~from the P.W.S.R. Fund~~.
