Construction of a temporary thatched shed for the Vidyodaya Girls' High School, Thyagarayanagar, as the main building of the school was unfit for occupation owing to the development of cracks. The D.P.S. has recommended that the action of the management in having entrusted the work to a firm without inviting tenders and without obtaining the prior approval of the plans and estimates may be approved and that a half grant not exceeding Rs 7,000/- based on the valuation of the work by the P.W.D. may be sanctioned in the current year. The draft order is in accordance with his recommendations. It may be sent to Finance for acceptance.
