No. 318 C3(1)/50 dated 18-12-1950.

Sir,
Madras Edl. Service - Rajah's College,
Pudukottai - Appointment of Lecturer in History - Proposals submitted.
Ref: G.O. Ms.No.3206 Edn., dated 1-12-1950.

In para (2) of the orders cited above, the Government have ordered that Sri P.V. Ramachandra Ayyar, Officiating as Professor of History in Rajah's College, Pudukottai, temporarily will be reverted as early as possible. The Professor's post will be included in the Madras Edl. Service re-designated as Lecturer and will be filled by the transfer of an officer of that service (Madras Edl. Service).

2. With reference to the above, I recommend that Sri R. Athinathan, Assistant Lecturer in History, Government College, Kumbakonam, whose name is in the approved list for appointment to the post of Lecturers in History in the Madras Edl. Service by transfer (vide G.O.Ms.3176 Edn., dated 15-10-49) may be appointed to officiate as Lecturer in History, Rajah's College, Pudukottai in the Madras Edl. Service and the present temporary Professor, Sri P.V. Ramachandra Ayyar, may be reverted to the Subordinate Edl. Service. I also suggest that to avoid unnecessary dislocation of work Sri R. Athinathan may be appointed as officiating Lecturer in History with effect from the date of re-opening of the Rajah's College, Pudukottai after the Christmas holidays. In this connection, I may add that Sri K.A. Joseph, who is immediately senior to Sri R. Athinathan is now officiating as Lecturer in Economics, in the Madras Edl. Service in the Government Brennen College, Tellicherry.

3. I solicit the favour of early orders in the matter.

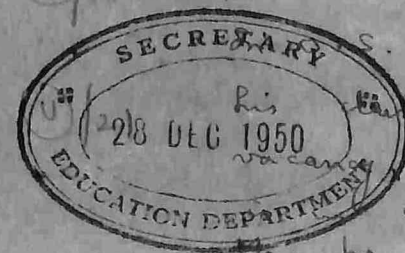

M. S. Subramanian

for Director of Public Instruction.

Edn. Dept. (A)

Sir R. Athinathan is the senior most approved candidate awaiting appointment as Lecturer in History (or Economics) in the M.E.S. He recently petitioned against the temp. appt. of S. Anchan, his junior, & then he was told that his claims would be considered for the next order. The Dir.'s recommendation above, which may be accepted. A draft is subd. May be wtd. to H.D. (E. & L.) and H.C.M.
