For 1948-49 when the Secretarial Section is started.

Superintendent, Penitentiary was addressed on 29-11-49 after the control was transferred from the Principal, Government Arts College, Madras to the District Educational Officer, early in Nov. '49.

Request already booked heavy orders. Request in ability to take up this order.

This has first four items of special furniture and the rest ordinary for the Secretarial section newly started.

Re. C.S.1/48 dated 30-12-49.

Submitted to the District Educational Officer, Madras, (in duplicate) with reference to his Re.No.493 A. J/49 dated 21-12-49.

As already reported by the Principal, Government Arts College, Madras, last year, owing to late sanction of the allotment the contractors could not supply the articles in time and the allotment lapsed. This year, the amount has been claimed by the Principal in his revised budget.

Purchase of furniture in the open market - Permission requested
Ref: G.O.Ms. 522 Edn. dated 20-2-1950 - (C)

In their order cited above, Government sanctioned permission for the purchase of certain articles of furniture required for the Secretarial section in the Government Madrasa-i-Azam, Madras in the open market. But the purchase could not be effected before the end of the financial year for want of sufficient funds and other difficulties.

2. Even this year the Superintendent, the Penitentiary, Madras has expressed his inability to undertake the supply (vide copy of his letter No.M/10/2684/50 dated 15-11-50 enclosed) I therefore request that permission may be accorded at an early date to purchase the required articles in the open market subject to the conditions laid down in para 2 of the G.O. referred to above.

3. Particulars required in G.O.4270 Home dated 8.8.39 are herewith furnished. As the total cost of the indent comes to Rs.2,600/- sanction to incur the expenditure will be accorded by me.

4. I request early orders of Government in the matter.
