No. M.R/Lelger dated 1-13-49

Sir,

Sub:-Report of the Tamil University Committee 1937-Evidence-
Part I--144 copies.
" II--148 Copies.

95988

The two publications mentioned above as per details given below have no sales for the past five years and as such it is considered that no useful purpose will be served by stocking them in the Mount Road Branch Press in view of the prevailing shortage of accommodation.

The reply of the Registrar of Madras University who was addressed on 14-11-49 to make arrangements to take back the copies of the two above publications is herewith enclosed.

I request that they may be treated as waste paper and their value of Rs 1094-0-0 written off.

No.M.R./Ledger, dated 20-12-49.

Sub: Books and Publications - Text books of E.S.L.C and T.S.L.C. - Examinations - write off of value and sale as waste paper - orders solicited.

273 In enclosing herewith a statement showing the balance of unsold copies of T.S.L.C. and E.S.L.C. Text books for the years 1937 and 1941 to 1948, I have to state that the quality of the paper is such that it is not possible to keep them in stock any further. The above matter has been brought to the notice of the Secretary to the Commissioner for Government Examinations and a copy of his reply Rc. 911-C/48 dated 4-10-49 is attached herewith. Even if these text books are repurchased thousands of copies are to be printed to meet the public demand as the present stock is too insufficient.

Besides acute difficulty is being felt for want of accommodation in the Mount Road Branch Press, to keep such books.

Under these circumstances orders are solicited to write off, of their value of Rs. 41028-6-0 (Rupees Forty one thousand and twenty eight and annas six) and treat them as waste paper.

Please see the note of Finance above. It has been ordered in No. 2589 Edn of 16.8.49 that for all the waste paper supplied to the Andhra Paper Mills a debit should be raised against the concern under '43 Industries - Industries - U. Andhra Paper Mills and a per contra credit afforded under 'XLV Stationery and Printing - Receipts - Miscellaneous'. It is necessary to make the S.F. aware of the value of the waste paper collection. The whole book value may be written off as the cost of waste paper will be credited to Govt. account separately. Finance may see again.

According to the arrangement mentioned by EPH on p. 2 above, it may not be possible to find out the exact value of the books ~~proposed~~ if sold as waste paper, as the entire waste paper in the Press will be removed to the rules periodically. In view of this, there does not seem to be any objection to writing off the full book value of the books. The draft order on p. 1 above may be accepted.
