Sir,

Sub: MADRAS EDUCATIONAL SERVICE - Posts of Principal and Vice-Principal, Law College, Madras - Revision of pay.

Ref: Government Memorandum No.53940-A.4 Edn., dated 14th September 1949 (para 2).

The duties of the Principal, Law College, Madras are to lecture and administer the affairs of the college. The duties of the Vice-Principal are to lecture and assist the Principal in the administrative work of the college and in the maintenance of the discipline of the students. A copy of the Principal's letter dated 3-10-49 detailing the duties of the Vice-Principal is enclosed.

2. The Professor's work differs from the Vice-Principal's in that the Professor is not ordinarily required to assist the Principal in the administrative work of the college. The Vice-Principal, Teachers' College, Saidapet is also the Lecturer in his subject but he is not required to assist the Principal in the administrative work of the college as regularly as is the Vice-Principal, Law College. The designation "Vice-Principal" attached to a Lecturer's post in the Teachers' College is, however, proposed to be taken away according to the draft amendments under consideration and it does not seem necessary to consider the duties of the Vice-Principal, Law College in comparison with those of the Vice-Principal, Teachers' College, Saidapet.

3. In G.O. Ms.2885 Education dated 14-9-49 the scale of pay of the post of Principal, Law College has been revised as Rs.1,250 - 50/2 - 1,400/- for the period for which Sri S. Govindaraju Naidu holds it. This scale needs improvement in so far as the rate of increment is concerned. A biennial increment of Rs.50/- seems to be inappropriate for a scale ranging from Rs.1,250/- to Rs.1,400/-, considering the fact that the increment is Rs.100/- even in respect of the lower scale of Rs.800 - 1,000 attached to the posts of Principals of Presidency and Teachers' Colleges. In the circumstances I recommend that Government may kindly reconsider the matter and revise the scale of pay of the post of Principal, Law College, from Rs.1,250 - 50/2 - 1,400/- to Rs.1,200 - 100/2 - 1,400/-.

for Director of Public Instruction.

Copy of letter dated 3-10-49 from the Principal, Law College, Madras to Lt. Col. Hamid, Joint Director of Public Instruction.

Here is a short note about the Vice-Principal and his duties.

The first suggestion of a Vice-Principal seems to have been in the early twenties. It was felt that there should be an assistant to the Principal, a whole time officer who would be always ready to take the place of the Principal if the latter were to be absent or to go on leave. Before 1929 the college staff consisted of a Principal and a number of part-time Lecturers and it was the absence of any full time member with whom the Principal could consult that was responsible for this suggestion. Later in 1925-26,

when the discussions were still going on, it was suggested that the Vice-Principal should be in charge of the library and of the work of the students in the library. Although this latter half of his work was found impracticable, checking the library and the control of library servants have remained part of the duty of Vice-Principal.

The Vice-Principal was finally appointed in the year 1929 and by that time the Law College Council became convinced that over and above the Vice-Principal there should be another permanent man on the staff, i.e., the Professor. It may very well be asked why the Vice-Principal and the Professor should not be put on the same footing as senior and junior professors and why one of them should be on a different scale of pay and be styled Vice-Principal. The answer to this question seems to be this. Although in the old days, a professorship in the Law College was regarded as a stepping stone to Judicial appointments, the story of recent years has been entirely different - an appointment in the Law College being in the nature of a blind alley leading no where and it was felt that unless the Professorship was made attractive, it may not tempt the proper type of people. Therefore, the Vice-Principalship is offered as a promotion post to the Professor. I must also point out that discipline has considerably improved with the advent of the full-time teachers. Part-time Lecturers have no time to get to know the students, they have no time to stay in their rooms even, and it is only the full-time people who can get to know students and make them feel that this is a college and not a mere lecturing institution. During the time that I have been Principal, I have insisted that all the three full time teachers, Principal, Vice-Principal and Professor should take both the F.L. and B.L. classes so that they may have an opportunity of getting to know the students and their special problems and requirements.

Special duties of the Vice-Principal.

1. Verification of fees collections:- Ordinarily the clerk collects the money and enters the figures in his book after counting the amount. The Vice-Principal checks the fee receipts and enters the amount in a book of his own. The Principal has the bank figures when the money is sent to the bank, and later all the three are checked by the Principal before the entries are made in the daily fee collection register. The Vice-Principal's check therefore is a great help to the Principal.
2. The Vice-Principal is also in charge of the library books. As library books are ordered and received, he initials entries in the library register, and signs the office copies of the bills supplied. At the end of the year, he checks the entire library. He is also in charge of the Librarian and the library staff.
3. He supervises the common room and the accounts are kept under his supervision and control.
4. He is Joint Editor of the college magazine and is practically responsible for the magazine. This entails not only the collection of articles but also proof correction and various matters such as advertisements, choice of the Press etc., which cannot be left to students.

Reference:- G.O. Ms. No. 666 Education, dated 2-3-1950.

I have the honour to submit that apart from the scale of pay specially fixed for the present Principal, Sri S.Govindarajulu Naidu, the permanent scale for the post of Principal, Law College, Madras, is Rs.800--75/2--1,100. In the second paragraph of the G.O. referred to above it is stated that there is no justification for revising the existing scale of Rs.800--1,000. I request you to let me know whether the figure Rs.1,000/- is an error in typing for Rs.1,100/- or whether the maximum has been reduced to Rs.1,000 only.

Yours faithfully,

From the D.P.I., No.53/49, d/- 22-11-49.

Law College, Madras - Principal and Vice-Principal
Revision of pay.

There are three full-time gazetted teaching posts in the Law College, Madras - Principal, Vice-Principal and Professor.

The scale of pay of the Professor was revised in Dec.1948 from Rs.300-600 to the level of the Vice-Principal's pay, viz., Rs.500-50/2-800.

In August last, when the Principal's post fell vacant, the question of revising the scale of pay of the Principal and the Vice-Principal also was raised. The D.P.I.'s letter at pp.17-18 C.F. ^(K) set out the case for the revision. His suggestions were that the Vice-Principal's scale might be altered from Rs.500-800 to Rs.600-75/2-900 and that the Principal's scale, which was Rs.800-75/2-1,100, might be fixed as Rs.800-100/2-1,200. The main ground for the proposals was that the existing scales were not attractive and that experienced men of the proper type would not come forward for appt. on those scales.

Finance considered the revisions unnecessary. ^{They noted proceeded on the presumption} They presumed that the Vice-Principal's post in the Law College did not carry higher responsibilities than the Prof.'s post in that college or the Vice-Principal's post in the Teachers' College, Saidapet, carried. They suggested that the Vice-Principalship might be advertised on the minimum of Rs.500 in the existing scale itself, and that if there was no response to the advtt., then the question of starting the recruit on a higher stage than the minimum in the scale might be taken up. In order to enable a promotee from the Prof.'s post to the Vice-Principal's post to draw a higher pay, the Fin. dept. agreed to allow, under F.R.30, officiating promotion -- in which case the officer promoted could draw pay at the next higher stage of the scale applicable to ^{when} both the posts. Finance dept. also held that there was no case for revising the Vice-Principal's pay, the Principal's scale, either, need not be altered.

Finance's presumption at L at p.1 ante is not correct. The Vice-Principal in the Law College is required to assist the Principal regularly in the latter's administrative duties and in maintaining discipline in the college -- whereas either the Prof. in that college or the Vice-Principal in the Saidapet Teachers' College is not expected to give such assistance regularly. The Law College Principal's letter at pp.2-3 C.F. may be seen.

Re: their suggestion at N at p.1 ante, candidates satisfying the prescribed qualifns. may perhaps offer themselves for appt. even on the existing scale. But such candidates will be only of average abilities. There can be no doubt that if the services of brilliant men with outstanding achievements are to be had, the pay of the post should be attractive enough.

The declaration of admissibility of officiating promotion, suggested by Fin., from the Prof.'s to the Vice-Principal's post, would not be a proper solution. It would not benefit a person who has reached the maxm. in the scale.

Particularly when the Vice-Principal's duties are more and his responsibilities are higher, there is a strong case for raising his scale. This dept. may recommend that the scales originally proposed by the Dir. for both the Principal and the Vice-Principal be accepted.

2. The ~~Vice~~-Principal's post fell vacant consequent on the retirement of Sri K. Krishna Menon. The Vice-Principal was Sri S. Govindarajulu Naidu who was drawing the maxm. of Rs.1,200 in the Vice-Principal's old scale of Rs.600-50-1,200. He was promoted as Principal in Sri Krishna Menon's place. Ordinarily, on promotion, ~~wh~~ he would get the maxm. of the Principal's new scale, viz., Rs.1,100, and Rs.100 as personal pay. As that would not mean any monetary addition, a special scale of Rs.1,250-50/2-1,400 was fixed for the Principal's post for the period for which he held it. The minutes at pp.12-13 N.F. of "K" may be perused in this connection. The D.P.I. has now represented that the rate of increment, viz., Rs.50 for two years, is small and that Rs.100 may be fixed as the rate and the scale revised to Rs.1,200-100/2-1,400. This dept. may support the Dir.'s recommendation. Sri Govindarajulu Naidu will have to be given Rs.1,300 from the date of his appt., as that ~~is~~ ^{would be} the stage next above his substantive pay.

3. The remarks of Finance may be invited before circulation.

The question of the rates of these salaries, has to be related to what lawyers from whom the staff is recruited earn. If the salary is not on level with these earnings, we cannot expect any first class men, required for these posts. The actual results of the Commission attempts before have shown this. In the circumstances we should be prepared to allow the salaries proposed.

The file deals with the question of (i) the revision of the scales of pay of the Vice-Principal and (ii) Principal of the Law College, Madras. Notes from page 1 above may be perused.

Proposal (i) above:- Revision of the scale of pay of Vice-Principal:- The existing scale of pay for the post is Rs. 500-50/2-800. The question of revising this scale of pay further, was considered only recently in August 1949, and this Department advised against the proposal. Please see in this connection this Department's note on pages 8-9 N.F. of G.O. at (K). E & P.H. Department have reopened the question again, by a comparison of the duties attached to the post of Vice-Principal, Law College with that of Vice-Principal, Teachers' College, Saidapet and for the reason that higher scale of pay is necessary for attracting the services of brilliant men with outstanding achievements.

It is however submitted that the comparison referred to at A can be only justifiable and logical, only if the scales of pay attached to these posts are equal. But that is not the case. The Vice-Principal, Law College is getting a pay of Rs. 500-50/2-800, whereas the Vice-Principal, Teachers' College, Saidapet is getting only a pay of Rs. 230-30/2-260-40/2-500-50/2-700. Obviously a higher scale of pay had been fixed for the former post only in view of the high academical qualifications and other achievements expected from persons filling those posts and the duties and responsibilities attached to that post. This Department's suggestion to ask the Madras Public Service Commission to advertise the post on the existing pay itself and if the desired type of candidate is not forthcoming, to advertise again offering a higher starting pay, ~~look~~ and watch the results, does not seem to have been given a trial atleast. Unless this is done there seems to no strong grounds for re-opening the subject and Finance may advise that this part of the proposal be deferred.

of pay of Principal:- The special scale of Rs. 1250-50/2-1400 was sanctioned as personal to Sri Govindarajulu Naidu, so long as he holds the post of Principal, Law College, Madras. The normal scale of pay for the post of Principal, Law College is only Rs. 800-75/2-1100. The biennial increments of Rs. 50 was sanctioned only on the recommendation of the Director of Public Instruction. The Director of Public Instruction has now recommended a biennial increment of Rs. 100 in the scale of Rs. 1200-100/2-1400 for the reason, that a higher biennial increment of Rs. 100/- is attached to the posts of Principals of Presidency and Teachers' College, Saidapet, though their scale of pay is only Rs. 800-1000.

But it is submitted that this is not a new phenomenon, and prior to sanction of the special scale of Rs. 1,250-1400, the post of Principal, Law College was carrying only a biennial increment of Rs. 75/- Further the special scale of Rs. 1,250-50/2-1400 was sanctioned to Sri Govindarajulu only recently in September 1949, after taking into consideration the peculiar nature of the case. It, therefore, seems unnecessary to consider a further revision of pay again within so short a period. Finance may advise against the proposal.

E & P.H. Dept. (A)

This dept. may agree with Finance that the special scale sanctioned for Sri S. Govindarajulu Naidu in the post of Principal, Law College, viz., Rs. 1,250-50/2-1,400, need not be revised to Rs. 1,200-100/2-1,400.

2. But, the proposals ~~for~~ ^{at p. 1 ante} for the revision of the Vice-Principal's pay and the Principal's normal pay may be pressed and orders taken in circulation. In their note at p. 4 ante, Finance state that a comparison of the duties of the Vice-Principal, Law College, and the Vice-Principal, Teachers' College, cannot be made as the latter's pay is lower than the former's. This stand may be admitted. But in the Law College itself, both the Vice-Principal and the Professor are ^{now} on the same pay. The comparison of the duties of these two posts ~~may~~ should be logical. The Vice-Principal has more duties and has to take up higher responsibility than the Professor. His pay should therefore be higher than the Professor's. The Fin. dept.'s suggestion at R at p.4 ante for advertising the post first on the existing scale of pay, was commented upon by this dept. at X at p.2 ante and by Secy. at p.3 ante.

3. May be circd. to H.M.(E.&L.) and H.M.(Fin.) for orders.

The scales of pay in the Law College are:-

Professor.	..	Rs. 500-50/2-800.
Vice-Principal ..		-do-
Principal.	..	Rs. 800-75/2-1,100.

There is a vacancy now in the post of Vice-Principal which has been temporarily filled up by re-employment. The D.P.I. has recommended that the scale of pay for this post should be upgraded for the reason that the pay of the Professor has been recently upgraded to the existing scale of the Vice-Principal and that previous experience has shown in connection with the recruitment of the Professor that the Commission is not able to recruit suitable men. The view of Finance is that the Commission may be asked to advertise on the existing scales. This does not seem to be desirable for the reason that with refce. to previous experience, there is ~~likely~~ only likely to be much waste of time. It is also anomalous that the Vice-Principal's scale of pay should be the same as that of the Professor subordinate to him. The previous difference between these two posts those persons who have not reached the maximum of the ~~xx~~ lower scale will be started on the minimum of the higher scale; those who have gone up to the maxm. will be started ~~on the next stage~~ in the higher scale, at the stage next to the maximum of the lower scale. If a Vice-Principal on Rs. 825 is promoted as Principal, he will get ~~the~~ ^{an} initial pay of Rs. 875, as Principal, in the scale of Rs. 800-75/2-1,100. It would therefore appear that there is no serious objection to accept the Dir.'s recommendation, on the score of the Principal's starting ^{pay} being only Rs. 800.

2. K in H.M.(E.&L.)'s minutes:

The D.P.I.'s proposals about the Principal's post are two:-

(1) That the scale ordinarily applicable to the post be revised from Rs. 800-75/2-1,100 to Rs. 800-100/2-1,200.

(2) That the special scale sanctioned for Sri Govindarajulu Naidu in the post, viz., Rs. 1,250-50/2-1,400 ~~may~~ be altered to Rs. 1,200-100/2-1,400.

Finance do not agree to proposal (2) -- p.5 ante.

They do not apparently accept proposal (1), either, since they have opposed the revision of the Vice-Principal's pay.

3. May be recircd. to H.M.(E.&L.) first w.r.t.

H.M.(Fin.)'s minutes at p.7 ante ^{the points for orders are} and the notes following.

(1) whether H.M. (E+L) will agree to retain the scale of pay of Rs 500- 50/2-800 with a duty allowance of Rs 50 p.m for the Vice-Principal

(2) whether the scale of pay sanctioned for the Principal viz Rs 800- 75/2 - 1100 may be retained

(3) Whether the proposal for the further revision of pay of Mr. Govindarajulu may be negatived.
