Mrs. M. Lakshmiammal, Principal, Lady Willingdon Training
College, Madras has represented to me that she may be deputed to Sevagram for a ten days' stay there so as to obtain a first deputed to Sevagram for a ten days' stay there early in March '50.

Sevagram.

REF: Director's letter RC.No.177-M/50 dated 17-2-1950. flat

It is learnt that the Principal, Lady Willingdon Training College has been asked telephonically by Government to state whether it would not be convenient if she visits Sevagram in April. Since the training section at Sevagram closes by the end of March, the Principal has to be there before the middle of March for her stay there to be useful.

Fin (CSR)

It would appear from the D.P.I.'s letter in the Cf., that ~~the proposal to depute~~ ^{the proposal to depute} Mrs. Lakshmi Ammal to Sevagram has been made at her instance and in her interest. ~~that it will be useful in her service is only incidental~~ ^{that it will be useful in her service is only incidental} In the circumstances, there seems to be no justification to bear the Coorogher journey to and from Sevagram from Public funds. It seems sufficient to bear the period of her absence as duty, it being left to her to meet the expenses of her ~~journey~~ ^{trips} from her pocket. E.D.H. may be requested to modify the draft suitably, making the intention clear.

28/2/50

Will E.D.H. kindly say if there are any basic education classes in the Lady Willingdon Training College & whether they consider the journey of the Principal to Sevagram as essential? I do not think Govt. should ordinarily encourage such trips.
