Sir,

Letter from the Curator, State Museum, PUDUKKOTTAI No. 23/m of 49 dated 3-9-'49. pp. 3-4 infra

I have the honour to enclose a copy of letter from the Curator, Pudukkottai State Museum cited above and to state that the procedure of sending each and every contingent bill for my countersignature from Pudukkottai to Madras and back will involve considerable time and labour not to mention the unnecessary postage incurred. I agree with him that he may be allowed to draw on contingent bills without my countersignature. But I shall however countersign the Curator's Travelling Allowance Bills which will be few and far between. I therefore request Government will be pleased to authorise the Curator, State Museum, PUDUKKOTTAI to draw contingent bills without my countersignature.

Yours faithfully,

A. Aiyappan

Sir,

Subject: Museum - Pudukkottai (State) Museum - Bills - Travelling allowance and contingent - Countersigning - Instructions - Soliciting of;

Reference: Your letter No. 302/49-6 dated 5-3-1949:

In inviting your kind attention to paragraph of your letter quoted above the local Treasury Officer requires that travelling allowance and contingent bills should be countersigned before they are passed for payment. Till now the local Special Deputy Collector was countersigning the Travelling allowance and contingent bills of the Museum. After the State Archaeological Department had been taken over by the Central Government he has ceased to have any controlling authority for the State Archaeological Department. He desires that the bills in future should be sent to you for Countersignature, or I should be empowered to draw my Travelling allowance, and office contingent bills without being countersigned as in the pre-merger days. If the bills are to be sent to you every month, besides the delay to be caused in transit, and other causes there will be the heavy postage as they are to be sent by registered post. Now that I have become a stationary officer there may not be much of touring for me, except occasionally for collections, and hence there will be no Travelling allowance bills. But, there are the contingent bills to be passed every month.

I, therefore, request that I may be empowered to draw the contingent bills without being countersigned, or the local Revenue

He was, as you are aware, the controlling authority P.T.O.

Divisional Officer be requested to countersign them as he had been doing till now. If both the above methods suggested may not be found possible to be effected I shall, of course, submit my bills to you for Countersignature.

Yours faithfully,

dated the 5th November 1949.

I have the honour to state that in the pre-merger days, The Curator, Government Museum, Pudukkottai was empowered to draw his own bills, Pay and Travelling Allowances of the staff and office contingent bills. After the merger the Special Deputy Collector was countersigning practice, the Curator, continues to draw his pay bills and those of his staff to which the Treasury Officer, Pudukkottai has not so far objected. But after the Museum was brought under the control of the Superintendent, Government Museum the Treasury Officer insists on the Travelling Allowance and Contingent Bills being countersigned by the Superintendent,
