Sub: Benefits extended to non-participants in N.G.O. strike - Extension to the workers in the Government Press - Request from the Union.

Ref: From the Secretary, Madras Govt. Press Workers' Union, dated 9-10-48.

From the S.G.P. Endt. No.20-Mis-47 dt. 13-10-48.

Please see the letter from the Secretary, M.G.P.W. Union on p.1 c.f. He requests that the benefits which may be given to the non-participants in the last N.G.O. strike should be extended to the workers of the Govt. Press, who as a body disassociated themselves with the strike and who also come under the category of the N.G.Os. The S.G.P. has forwarded the letter. It is submitted that the workers in the Press do not come under the category of the ministerial staff, who were on a strike during the last December. The workers in the Press have got a separate service Union. Therefore, this class of servants who are not the members of the non-technical staff, does not appear to be eligible for any concession given to the non-Gazetted staff who did ^{not} join the Strike.

Further no decision on the proposal at 'A' on p.1 c.f. has yet been arrived at.

May be sent to Public (Ser).

Cens 866 88 from the S.S.P. No. 11018 dated 19-11-48 p 3-4

The S.S.P. states that the vast majority of workers in the Press are members of the Govt Press Sub-Service Rule 1 (a) of the rules relating to this service only those who were permanent on 26.5.30 or who were on that holding in an officiating capacity and have been subsequently confirmed, in the posts specified therein are members of that service.
Though technically they may not be members of those who were employed in regular establishments of the Press after 26.5.30, may not be members of the service, they are apparently treated by the S.S.P. for all purposes as coming under these rules. The file may be sent to Please see the representation of the Govt. Press Workers Union on p. 1 of. In G.O. 727 Pub (Ser) d. 23.2.50 regarding grant of bonus to loyal Govt. servants. ~~It is~~ it has been stated that only the ministerial staff who did not participate in the strike (excluding for this purpose clerks etc who at the time of the strike belonged to ~~the~~ Associations other than N.G.O. Association) should alone get the benefit. The Govt. Press workers who belong to the Govt. Press workers Union are not thus eligible for the bonus. As the instructions in the G.O. are clear, no separate reply to the ~~S.G.~~ Union seems necessary. The papers may be recorded.
