No. B1.15574/49
Dated: 24th November 1950

Schools - Deaf and Dumb School - Boarding charges of pupils - sanction requested.

The Municipal Council is maintaining a school for Deaf and Dumb pupils ever since 1936. There are 15 pupils reading in the school. Hitherto five poor pupils reading in the school were fed by one philanthropic gentleman of the town who was running a hotel upto 28-8-49. The hotel was stopped from 29-8-49 and they are being fed at Municipal cost from 29-8-49. The cost per pupil comes to Rs.15/- p.m. and the total monthly expenditure for five pupils comes to Rs.90/- p.m. The proposal for opening a hostel for all the pupils in the school is under consideration. The expenditure for the current year from August 1949 to February 1950 will come to Rs.700/- approximately. I therefore request that the Government may be pleased to accord sanction for incurring the expenditure from the general funds of the Council. Government may also be pleased to grant half grant on this expenditure.

of the D.P.G. It may be mentioned in this connection that ~~the~~ ^{has been taken} ~~considered desirable~~ that the schools for defectives should be, as
