Department, Madras.

No.B.8.7277/50. Dated: 1/3/50.

Sir,

Sub: Stationery - paper - supply of Double Crown size to the S.G.P - Sanction for ~~sa~~ effecting purchase - requested.

Ref: G.O.Ms.411 Education dated 9/2/50. - p 154 ②

In the G.O cited above, Government were pleased to authorise the Superintendent of Stationery to purchase and stock white printing double Crown size paper and Imitation Art paper for regular use of the Government Press.

As supply orders against the allocation of paper for the year 1949-50 have already been placed with the Mills, this paper could not be obtained against the allocation for 1949-50.

The Superintendent, Government Press in his letter dated 25/2/50, a copy of which is enclosed states that 2050 reams of white double Crown size paper is urgently required for printing E.S.L.C. & T.S.L.C.
books and that white printing paper of any other size cannot be used without wastage. Hence he requests immediate arrangements to be made for the purchase and supply of the paper to the Press or that he may be authorised to effect the purchase and forward the bill to this office for payment. In as much as the Superintendent, Government Press, is willing to effect direct purchase, I request that orders may kindly be passed authorising the Superintendent, Government Press, to purchase 2050 reams of white printing double crown (20x30) size paper about 30 lbs in substance for his urgent use at the controlled rates and to forward the bill to this office for payment.
