CHINTADRIPET,

Madras (2) 14th July 1949

Hon'ble Sri P.S.Kumarasami Raja,
Prime Minister,
Government of Madras,
Madras.

Honoured Sir,

Re: Half Fee Concession to Viswakarma Students.

We have received several complaints from different parts of our province that half fee concession is refused to our members for the simple reason that the name of this community is written as VISWAKARMA and not as KAMMALA or Viswabrahmin.

Government are aware that "Viswabrahmin", "Viswakarma", "Kammala" etc are synonymous names of one and the same community and as such fee concession should not be refused for not writing the name as Kammala or Viswabrahmin.

The majority of the members prefer VISWAKARMA and do not wish to call themselves as VISWABRAHMIN.

Hence, we request that Government will be pleased to pass orders instructing the Educational authorities to include the name of "VISWAKARMA" also in the list of educationally backward communities other than the scheduled classes, along with the name "VISWABRAHMIN" & delete the word Kammala

Hope this will receive the early attention of the Government.

Yours faithfully,

General Secretary.
