District Munsiff, Amlapuram.

The humble representation of Nittala Narasimham, Process clerk, District Munsiff's Court, Amlapuram.

Most Honored sir,

The petitioner was on the 1st October 1887, first appointed an Ameen in the District Munsiff's Court of Peddapur, but doing clerical duty in this Court. He was appointed a Process clerk on Rs 12, in 1890. Though a Process clerk, he has all along been doing important work in this Court, and that to the entire satisfaction of his superiors. He writes a good hand both in English and in Telugu.
He is well versed in all branches of the work.

He therefore prays that your honor may be pleased to recommend him to be exempted from passing the educational test to hold footing on Rs 15 & 20, in the Process Establishment.

He begs to remain

Sir,

In forwarding herewith for favorable consideration an application from N. Parasimham, a process-writer on Rs 12-0-0 of this Court, I have the honor to report that the applicant writes a fair hand both in English and Telugu.
He knows almost all branches of the Court work, and has been discharging his duties to my satisfaction. He is not a passed candidate to get any promotion.

in the Establishment. He is too far advanced in age to undergo any education for passing any examinations, which would make him eligible for promotion.

In these circumstances, I request that you will be pleased to recommend him to the Government, if you are pleased to think that the applicant deserves it, for exemption from passing the required educational test for promotion.
