I. Mudabidri Ananda Rao a clerk of my office is now transferred to the Mangalore Taluk office. He wants a testimonial from me and I give this to him. He has served me in this office for upwards of 3 years.
He is a long standing servant of much experience. He possesses good common sense, is intelligent and hard working more than able to do his own work. he is willing to assist his brother clerks, a disposition seldom observable in the clerks of an office overwhelmed with work; he knows English and writes an excellent hand which enhances his usefulness in an office.
The only fact to be regretted is that he has not passed the requisite Tests. If he had, he would have been long ago promoted. Without going up for those Tests he has passed.

passed the best part of his life in office work and has been superceded by his juniors. Now it will be only doing justice if he be recommended for an exemption from the Tests to enable him to get a promotion which he really deserves, and of which I shall be glad to hear.

II. M. Ananda Rau is a thoroughly efficient public servant.
He has not however passed the General Test and his promotion is therefore a matter of the greatest difficulty. It is out of the question now to expect him to pass the Test and his case is therefore one calling for special consideration. The good work that he has done makes it necessary for me to advise him to put in an application for exemption exemption from passing the examination and I sincerely hope that his hard case will receive due consideration at the hands of his Superiors. I shall be glad to hear of his success.

III. Clerk Mudabidri Ananda Rau of Udupi Taluk Kacheri is a clerk of considerable experience. He is very intelligent and hard working.
He deserves to be exempted from the Examination Rules and promoted to a clerkship of 20 Rupees.

IV. I am prepared to bear witness to the character of Mudabidri Ananda Rau who was an Incometax clerk in the Kundapur Taluk Kachery. This Ananda Rau was an incometax clerk in the Kundapur Taluk, he has has performed that duty as well as the work belonging to the Magisterial clerk and that of Union Schools in addition to other emergent business. In all these I am satisfied. I have neither seen nor heard anything bad regarding his conduct. I had brought all these facts to the notice of Mr. Gibson the Asst. Collector. I will be very glad if any permanent post be conferred upon him according to his merit and trust that he will be always obedient in carrying out the orders of his Superiors to their satisfaction.

The Right Honorable
The Governor in Council, Fort St George
Madras

Humble petition of Mudbidri Ananda Rao 4th clerk Taluk Office Eldipai, Dated 8th December 1894.

May it please Your Excellency, With due deference and submission I take the liberty to submit this my application for exemption from passing the U.C.S Examination for your Excellency's benign consideration.

2. I began government service in 1866 entering the Educational Department as an assistant Teacher in the Rate School at Maulky. After serving for some time in that Department and then in the judicial, I got myself transferred to the Revenue Department in the hope of getting rapid promotion.

but but unfortunately for me the Examination Rules came in force. I appeared for the Anglo-Vernacular General Test twice but failed on both the occasions. I am now 45 years old. My age and pressure of office work preclude my making any further attempt with hope of success.

3. In spite of very poor prospects, I have worked hard and faithfully. I have served in four out of the five Taluks in the District and given an entire satisfaction to my Superiors, copies of whose testimonials are herewith submitted.

4. I now count a total service of 29 years of which I have passed 20 in the Revenue Department. I feel extremely sorry and am greatly disappointed to see my juniors promoted over my head, for the only reason of my not passing passing the required tests.

5. I therefore, humbly pray that, on a benign consideration of my long and faithful services your Excellency will be graciously pleased to treat my hard case as an exceptional one and exempt me from passing the prescribed tests so that I may be given a post of 20 Rupees clerk in Taluks.

For which act of benevolence I shall ever pray.

I beg to remain
My Lord
Your Excellency's most obedt & humble Servant.
