SIR,

Enclosures.

I have the honor to submit the accompanying application for the favorable consideration of Government.

The applicant belongs to the family of the Prince of Beal and is personally known to me. He is an intelligent fine looking man of good presence and physique and ought to make a good Inspector. The Police has at present but few Muhammadan Inspectors and most of these of insignificant families. It would be greatly to the advantage of the Department if ^{more} Muhammadans of good family like the applicant were entertained in it. I, of course recommend the entertainment of the applicant only on probation and on the understanding that he passes the Specialtest Examination within the period of his probation, 2 years.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most obedt. Servt.
