The Queen's most Excellent Majesty

J. S. Sundra aiyar, residing at No 2. Pannanchala Vadhiar street Mylopore, Madras, humbly beg to submit this memorial for Her most Gracious Majesty's kind consideration and decision.

Most respectfully Sheweth:—

On the 8th November 1894 I submitted a memorial to your most Gracious Majesty stating that I beg your most Gracious Majesty to consider my case. The said memorial was forwarded to the Madras Government and they delivered it to me through the Madras City Commissioner of Police with the intimation that unless I submit my memorial through the local Government the Home Government will not entertain it in their office. on such intimation I beg to submit the following:—

1. Narrating about my person I beg to submit that I am a poor young brahmin student born of poor parents living in Madras.
I am born in a respectable brahmin family. My parents are very poor and very old. In spite of their poverty and their old age they got me preliminary English education. Afterwards through my own exertions and with the aid of a certain native gentleman I have studied for the matriculation examination of the Madras University. owing to my poverty and in consequence of my being without any help whatever I am not able to receive a better or any professional education.
I beg to state further, in this country that unless a man is educated for some profession, it is very difficult for him

2

This Excellency the Right Honorable Lord Bichay Baron Wellock G. C. J. E.
 Governor of Fort St. George Madras.

I humbly beg to submit this memorial, trusting that your Excellency will give a favorable decision.

Most respectfully sheweth:-

I humbly beg your Excellency to forward the accom-panying memorial to his honor the Secretary ^{of State} for India.
 If your Excellency be pleased to take pity in me and grant my request, it will be an open path for my education. If your Excellency refuse to grant my request, I beg to state that I will be utterly ruined. I beg to entrust my fate into your Excellency's hand for decision. In conclusion I beg your Excellency to forward the accompanying memorial to his honor the Secretary ^{of State} for India.

I Pray for an answer regarding this subject mentioned in this memorial. I further pray that the answer should be sent to me for my address mentioned at foot and not through the City Commissioner of Police.

I beg to remain

28 January 1895. Your Excellency's humble Petitioner
