CURRENT NO. 335
R.C.C. Kumbakonam
16 MAR 95
13th March 1895
M.C.S.

To
His Excellency The Right Honorable
The Governor of Fort Saint George Madras.
16th

May it please your Excellency, As to the Supreme head of a family, one would run up, with a complaint, when others in the family wouldn't attend to it, for no reason, so, I do run up to your Excellency, with this complaint, and let it be attended to, with some concern, to grant my need therein I state.

I was in the Educational Service till 1886. I was then just 41 years old. I was then holding a post of Rs 80, my actual pay being Rs 64. I was retired then, on a 3rd pension of Rs 19-9-0 per mensem and why so, God only should account for.

I appealed to your Excellency's predecessor. He passed a Proceedings for my Employment back, but the Proceedings passed, being without the smell of a Governor's tone, to make the heads of Departments to obey it, I am still without being taken back into service.

My gate indeed has become abominable. My old age, of course, is threat-ening, to foresee it now. My Testimo is speaks of my service, well, and the result is this hard fate of mine. I am not dissatisfied still with such a fate, for it is the Divine Will, as I do understand it.

I am a First Grade Pleader. I have practised in Salem and Madras Districts and in the Travancore High Court, and I have, at last, come to this District, as my Native place where to live a miserable life and die. My Testimonials, as a pleader, too, speaks well of my capabilities; but of what avail are they, when God's Will is wanting to better my circumstances. A chequered life is mine and wonderfully a chequered one, it is, which to relate, here, I am unwilling, as it should make this representation too big, for no purpose too, in the end. What I would, therefore, beg to bring to your Excellency, to notice as what has raised my grief to its extreme height, now, is this:-

By the present Educational Rulings I have been prevented from making use of my own learning, too, to my children to prepare them to go up for the several examinations of the Government, as by such rulings they should have read, in recognised schools for certain number of years, before going up for ^{an} examination and that the poverty of the parents or the parents' own learning could be of no use, to avail against such Rulings.

How hard the Rulings do affect the feelings of a man like myself a long experienced teacher of good fame as my Testimonials disclose and do also tell upon the future welfare of my poor children, while I am so poor, as I could not afford to take my children to a school of the kind, if I am also prevented from teaching them myself at home so as to enable them to go up for the examinations.

 Your Excellency will kindly notice.

Your Excellency will further notice the enclosures III & IV and learn from them what my present state is and would kindly issue a Proceedings, in consideration of my all pitiful state now and as paving my children's way to their better state for the future, that under my own certificate, as their teacher they could go up for the University Exams without the existing school-going restrictions applying to them.

And I would request in addition that a further Proceedings may be passed kindly to the effect that I myself may go up for the B.A. Exam., as was the case once without need of passing the F.A. or attending a college therefor, after this age and experience, as a teacher and otherwise as the study of the former Examination is more congenial to one of my present age (50) if I still cherished the desire of acquiring educational fame.

May these humble requests be to the pleasure of your Excellency and to the pleasure of your Excellency's good councillors to grant, taking me to be a single soul, made out now, as deserving the favours being shown, in the manner and just now.

I humbly and most respectfully beg to remain

Your Excellency

Your Excellency's most obedient and humble subject & servant

A. A. Swaminada Sagar

a High Court Vakil of Travancore, First Grade Pleader of the 3 Southern Districts of the Presidency and a Pensioner of the Madras Government, from the Educational Dept., now (in Decr. no. 22. Saka. Nish's St.
Humbacomu).

1. My Testimonials as to School Master.
