Copy of Resolution

Dated, 4 October 1893.

The members of the Re-organization Committee desire to place on record their high appreciation of the manner in which Surgeon-Captain John Smyth M.D. has performed the very onerous duties of Secretary to that Committee. Surgeon-Captain Smyth's labours extended over a period of nearly six months and during that time every spare moment was devoted to the services of the Committee. The Committee cannot speak too highly of his work and recommend to the Director of Public Instruction that he be granted a substantial honorarium.

SIR,

Now that the proposals in connection with the re-organization of the Medical College and the Medical schools at Kollone, and Tanjore have been submitted to Government, I think it but appropriate to bring to the notice of Government the enclosed copy of a letter from the President of the Re-organization Committee, dated 4 October 1893, recommending a suitable remuneration to Dr. J. Smyth, the Secretary and to B. Srinivasulu Naidu, the clerk to the Committee in certified as required by Act 29 (1) that the in consideration of their hard and heavy work done during their spare time.

 I think that Rs 500 would not be too high a remuneration for the Secretary, considering the period covered by his extra duties and the clerk may be paid Rs 40, the sum recommended by the Committee. The charge can be met from the provision made for salaries in the Medical College budget for 1895-96.

I have the honour to be,
 Sir,
 Your most obedient servant,

Order of 12 April 1895 No. 278

With reference to Art. 89(a) of the C.A.R. it should have been formally certified that the work done was special & outside the ~~length~~ ordinary duties of the officers concerned & that it did not interfere with the discharge of those duties. It is, however, sufficiently apparent that these conditions were fulfilled in this case & the Govt. is accordingly pleased to sanction payment of the following honoraria:

- (1) To Surg. Capt. J. Sanyal, Secretary to the Med. Coll. Reorganization Committee Rs 500;
- (2) To B. Srinivasulu Nayudu, writer in the Med. College, for performing clerical duties for the said Committee Rs 40.
