SIR,

Under instructions from the Revenue Board, I have the honor to convey to you the thanks of Govt for your assistance at the late Gooty Agricultural Exhibition as a member of the Central Committee.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Anantapur Collector's Office,
14th February 1883.

(Signed) F. A. NICHOLSON,
Collector.

7th December 1891.

This is to certify that C. Adenaryan Rau the bearer has served under me as a Clerk in the Dharmaram Taluk for over six months. During this period I have always found him to be hardworking intelligent and obedient. He does well as a Munshi than as an accountant. He knows English well and is fully qualified for the post of a Revenue Inspector which I hope he will get one day. He has given me satisfaction in his work.

(Signed) V. C. GOPALACHARY,
Tahsildar, Dhurmavaram.

Remarks of the Thasildar on the petition submitted by C. Adenaryan Rau Clerk Dharmavaram Taluk to the Head Asstt: Collector Penakonda for promotion dated 2nd March 1892 submitted. The applicant is a smart young man so far as I have known him. His abilities entitle him for promotion

(True Extract)
(Signed) J. WILLIAMS,
Tahsildar.

This is to certify that I have known C. Adenaryan Rau for some time past. At Dhurmavarm he was my Revenue Clerk. He is a very smart clerk and works like a horse. It is a pity he is not a passed Candidate. He is otherwise fully eligible for promotion.

(Signed) S. VASUDEVA RAU,
Ag. Tahsildar, Tadpatry.

To,

THE COLLECTOR OF ANANTAPUR.

SIR,

The Head Gumastah's place in the Taluk Office Gooty having fallen temporarily vacant, the Tahsildar of Gooty recommended C. Adenarayan Rau a permanent Clerk of the Yadiki Dy. Tahsildar's Office and acting in his Office for the post. C. Adenaryan Rau is an unpassed candidate and as such I think he is ineligible for promotion under the rules. He has a service for 10 years in the Department and having been allowed to appear for the Special Test, he has passed the Revenue Test Lower Grade with Account Code, and Translation Test Lower Grade in Telugu. Considering note 1. to the public service notification No. 56 dated 29-5-94 by itself there seems to be room to consider that promotion in the case of these men is not absolutely prohibited. But however the Board in several separate Proceedings of it forbade all promotion in case of unpassed men. It is doubtful whether note 1 referred to above over ride the Board Proceedings. The Clerk whose application is enclosed is smart, hardworking and intelligent. The fact that he has passed some Special Tests although he is an unpassed candidate speaks for itself. If he cannot be considered eligible for promotion, I request exemption may be applied for in his case in consideration that he has passed some Special Tests and is likely to pass some more. He is an active clerk and will well do for a Revenue Inspector.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

J. WILLIAMS,
Ag. Dy. Collector,

To

His Excellency the Right Honorable
THE GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL, MADRAS.

The humble petition of CHINNKOTTAPALLY ADENARAYAN RAU Taluk Gumasta, Gooty Taluk, Anantapur District.

Most Respectfully showeth,

That your Excellency's humble petitioner respectfully begs to bring these following few lines for kind and favourable consideration of His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor in Council for granting such redress as your Excellency thinks proper.

2. That your Excellency's petitioner is a permanent clerk on Rs.15 and has earned a superior service of nearly 11 years in the Revenue Department. He has passed the Middle School Examination in the Second class and on the strength of the certificate graciously granted by F. A. Nicholson Esquire he was permitted under the old rules, to appear for the Special Tests of which your Excellency's petitioner has passed Revenue Test Lower with Account x Code & Translation Lower grade. He has appeared for Criminal Lower and Precise + Higher grades held in the month of October last and hopes to come out successfully in these examinations.

Checked

+ Since pa
Precis Hig
also!

3. Revenue Test Lower grade with Account Code as your Excellency is fully aware, is the Test prescribed for the post of Revenue Inspector.

4. That admissions to Special Tests and promotion to superior service carrying a salary of Rs 15 and upwards, under the old rules, having been laid up under one and the same principle; it was believed that petitioner's admission to Special Tests according to old rules presupposed and was a passport for promotion to higher appointments after the passing of the Special Tests. With this belief no orders to the contrary having eminated either from the Collector or any other authority to whom your Excellency's petitioner advanced his claims for promotion on more occasions than once and not even on the occasion when he acted, according to enclosed order, as Revenue Inspector of Kanaganpalli Range, Dharmavaram Taluk, he thought it unnecessary to pass any of the Entrance Examinations and no attempt was therefore made to pass it which he would otherwise have done in his prime of life. He strove hard to pass the Special Tests by studying during nights which is the only time available to Taluk gumastas for studies, without caring for health, labor and expense and passed the Special Test Examinations mentioned in para 2 Supra x not recd.

5. That your Excellency's humble petitioner was in the month of December last, recommended by the present Tahsildar of Gooty Mr. A. S. Ponnusawmy Iyer Avergal B.A., for the post of Head Gumastah of Gooty Taluk which had become temporarily vacant. The Divisional Officer of Gooty however finding no definite orders in a case like the present one, submitted the case for orders of the Collector and requested him in the enclosed letter No. 765 dated 11th December 1894, in which he has fully described the abilities of the petitioner, to obtain exemptin of the Government, if rules do not permit the petitioner's promotion. The Collector thereon passed the following order:—

> "The mere fact that unpassed candidate has passed some Special Tests give him no claim for promotion Vide G. O. No. 871—16-11-94 Educational, embodied in B. P. No. 509—22-11-94
>
> 2. Under note (1) to article 56 of the Public service notification, however, the new rules apply only to admission to public service and not to promotion which should be regulated under the old rules. Vide B. P. No. 4447 Mis —10-8-94 appended to the above B. P.
> 3. It seems therefore that G. Adenarayan Rau can get promotion if he is entitled to it under the old rules."

6. The question now therefore is whether petitioner is eligible or not for promotion under the old rules and to this point your Excellency's petitioner ventures to submit that there is nothing, as far as your Excellency's petitioner is aware of, in the old rules to debar petitioner's promotion. There are orders to the effect that unpassed men cannot be taken into Superior service but not that being once in it they cannot be promoted. The petitioner's case therefore falls under the latter head. As your Excellency's petitioner is already holding an appointment in the superior service carrying a salary of Rs. 15 which is not opened to unpassed men, he is eligible for promotion in the same way as in the case of persons employed in Public service prior to 1859 or exempted by Government from the passing of entrance examination. If your Excellency however still hold and nevertheless considers that your Excellency's petitioner is techenically ineligible for promotion your Excellency's petitioner most respectfully and humbly pray's that he may be specially exempted and special permission granted him for his promotion in consideration (1) that his case is a peculiar one having greater force than the one in which the Government have quite recently exempted an unpassed candidate Vide G. O. No 404—23-6-93 Educational embodied in B P. No. 342 L. R.—13-8-94 (2) that your Excellency's petitioner has passed the Middle School Examination 2nd class which is in no way inferior in quantity or quality to old Uncovenented Civil Service Examination and Special Tests mentioned in para 2 supra. viz: Revenue Test Lower grade with Account Code and Translation Lower* which no other unpassed man Exempted by Govt has passed before exemption. (3) that he stands a fair chance of passing some more Special Test Examinations (4) that your Excellency's petitioner has under gone an amount of labor and expense wnich the petitioner was led to undergo for the past 5 or 6 years in the passing of Special Tests which he would otherwise have saved. (5) that his work and abilities have been well appreciated in the Revenue Department, by all the Tahsildars including present Tahsildar, not less than 13 in number under whom he has served during these 11 years and they have either furnished your petitioner with testimonials the copies of which are herewith submitted, or have left some public record in their offices. (6) That he belongs to a respectable family and his knowledge of English is in no way inferior to that of a Matriculate. Petitioner begs your Excellency's pardon for this egoism. (7).

* Since passed Precis Higher also.

7. That your Excellency's petitioner has acted as Head Clerk of the Salt Inspector on Rs. 30 and as Head Clerk of the District Forest Office Anantapur on Rs. 25 per mensem and has discharged his duties to the entire satisfaction of Messrs: C.V. Dalrymple. Hay and J.M Brogham Salt Inspector and District Forest Officer Anantapur District respectively. Both these European Officers have furnished your petitioner with Testimonials and the latter Officer has recommended your petitioner in an office note to the Collector declaring that your petitioner has done better work than the permanent passed Head Clerk. This office note finds place among the enclosed copies of Testimonials.

8. Your Excellency's petitioner has received his education in the Government Provincial School Bellary and has studied in Matriculation Class for full 2 years. He was one of those who passed the Preliminary examination and was selected to appear for the University Examination but your petitioner most unfortunately was not able to appear for the latter examination owing to the sudden death of his father which left him in despair & compelled him to enter into service to earn his livelihood and that of the large family depending upon him. In addition to the calamity the great famine of 1876 followed, he had therefore no alternative and was not able to prosecute his studies. Your Excellency will be pleased to observe that though the petitioner has not passed the Matriculation Examination, he is in no way inferior to a Matriculate so far his knowledge of English etc, is concerned.

9. Under the circumstances above represented your Excellency's humble petitioner prays that he may be exempted and special permission granted for his promotion. Your Excellency's petitioner will feel ever grateful for the favor of enabling him to hold such appointments as his superiors, may judge him for his work to be fit for. For this act of kindness your Excellency's petitioner will ever pray for Excellency's long life and future prosperity.

The petitioner is one of the best hands I have got. Though he is unpassed, he is quite equal to or even better than an average Matriculate. He deserves promotion for the way he has worked under me.

FOR ORDERS.

C. Adinárayana Ráo is a Taluk Gumastah on Rs 15 per mensem. He is an unpassed man and entered Govt Service in 1884 when the Examn. rules applied to appointments on Rs 20 and upwards. On the 1st July 1887 when the Examn. rules were extended to Rs 15 appointments the petr. must have been getting Rs 15 or less; he is therefore debarred from promotion by reason of G.O. d the 28th July 1886 no 482 Ed.

Under the old special Test Rules unpassed men were not permitted to appear for the Special Tests; but C. Adinárayana Ráo, though unpassed, appeared for the Special Tests under the circumstances explained in the note for orders under cover of G.O. d 11th Feb. 93 no 102 Ed and ~~have~~ has passed passed the Revenue Lower, the Translation Lower and the Precis Writing Test. This last test he passed at the examination held in October last. In view of these facts Adináráyana Ráo requests that he may be exempted from the operation of G.O. d 28th July 1886 No 482 Ed. His immediate superiors speak highly of him, & the fact that he has passed three special tests is clear testimony to his ability. It is submitted that it would be very hard to refuse him promotion. It is true that his appearance at the examinations was irregular but Govt. has condoned the irregularity & it would be hard measure to refuse the man ~~any~~ all benefit from the examns which he has passed.
