3. During the period referred to, though I was only an attender by designation, I have been performing the duties of a clerk and if I am not considered presumptuous, I would beg leave to submit that I am fully conversant with all the details of the office work and I have held with credit acting appointments of Gumastahs which my official superiors were good enough to give me from time to time.

to my age which is now 32 years, as well as the good will of the superiors under whom I worked, yet I was not fortunate enough in securing a permanent Gomastah's place on Rs 15 before the examination rules came into operation and to the same misfortune is to be attributable the refusal in 1887 on the part of the Collector to forward my application to Government for exemption, even though the rules themselves came into operation since thus neither being a passed candidate nor having had the good fortune to be exempted from passing any examination, my prospects in the Revenue Department were blighted and the excessive office work, poverty & age rendering me unfit for a scholastic career have all tended to seal my doom.

5. While I had thus resolved to resign myself to my fate, the appearance of Government order No. $\frac{524}{21-7-94}$ Ed in me a hope, which God granting may be realized through your honor's generosity. I am a poor Muhammadan & a native of this Dist. I have a tolerably good knowledge of Telugu and I know a little of English too. As to my diligence attetied for work in good character throughout the period of 10 years I beg to refer to the testimonials herewith attached. — The M. R. Ry. T. Gopalaswamy Iyyer, Avergal B.A.

Submitted for your honor's favorable consideration – The applicant Murtija Saib is attender in this office but has been doing the duty of a Gumastah. He is well conversant with the Revenue and Magisterial works – He is very intelligent and hardworking – For the last two years, during which he has been ~~de~~ serving under my immediate supervision, he has given me entire satisfaction in all branches of work. Under these circumstances I humbly beg that the applicant's prayer be taken into consideration and grant him the boon he prays for should be appointed to posts of Rs 15, who are not passed candidates. He is a deserving man. He is hard working, intelligent and bears an excellent character. He is quite competent to discharge the duties of a Taluk Gumasta and is a Muhammadan. I humbly beg leave to recommend that he may be exempted in honour of Her most Gracious Majesty's Jubilee."

and I need not doubt more on his character, fitness and hard work. I have also represented his claims to the Collector and he has noted the applicant's name to give him the Rs 10 Gumasta's place if sanctioned. I am afraid that it is now too late to ask for exemption in the applicant's case but that I think at this occasion the applicant's claims might be favourably considered if exemption could not be restored to. Though he is a mere attender he has been doing a great deal of work in this office and I have always observing him attended to the office even in holidays and be sure having written precedent inconvenience if any. He is, besides a proper man for the post applied for."

7. A. Murthuja Sahib, attendar attached to the Dy Tahsildar's office. At matter is though an unpassed candidate and is not well acquainted with English, still a very deserving and willing servant. He was once recommended for Exemption though he was not provided with a Gumastah's post heretofore; still I hope time may come when his good services will back him and give him success in getting Exemption
