For orders

As to whether Mr. R.R. K. Govindan may be permitted to appear for the Criminal Higher during 1895 & 96?

Candidates for the Criminal Higher are required to have passed the First Examination in Arts. This rule came into force in 1894 & notice of the restriction was given in 1889. He has already failed twice – in 1892 & 1893

To,

The Hon'ble J. F. Price Esqre, C. S. I., C. S., Chief Secretary to Government
Fort St. George.
Thro' the Inspector of Local Fund Accounts
and the Accountant General,
Madras.

The humble petition of K. Jamdan,
Assistant Inspector of L. F. Accts,
Madras.

Most respectfully Sheweth.

That after the receipt of Government Order No. 288 L. Misc., dated 13th February '91, expressing the inability of Government in according to the Accountant General's proposals for providing the Assistant Inspectors with Treasury Deputy Collectors' appointments, they not having passed the required tests, the humble Petitioner with a desire to qualify himself for the post appeared for Criminal Higher in the years 1892 & '93, having completed the other tests previously — viz, Revenue Higher Grade, Precis Higher and Criminal Lower and and Translation Lower.

That partly from the itenerating office he holds and partly from the arduous nature of the work he is entrusted with, he failed in the first year for want of a few marks in the Criminal procedure Code and in the 2d. year in Penal Code.

That as under the recent rules issued by Government in its order no 317 Edl., dated 9th May 1894, now in force, he is precluded from appearing for the examination not being an undergraduate, he most respectfully begs that the Government will be pleased to exempt him from the operation of these rules, and allow him to appear for the examination and qualify himself for the post within the next two years.

of which notice was given in 1889

Forwarded to the Acctt. Genl. for favorable consideration. If the concession applied for can properly be granted I am sure Mr. Govindan who is an efficient, hardworking, trustworthy & deserving ~~Clerk~~ Assistant Inspector will be very grateful for and justify his case being made an exception to the new rule which throws him out of the running for a Treasury Dy: Collectorship.

It cannot properly be styled new – as 4 years notice was given
