Note

It was notified in June 1889 that the Criminal Test, Lower would be closed from the 1st January 1894 to all persons who have not passed the First Examination in Arts. The petr. thus had five chances of passing the exam. He says he was too hard-worked to appear as a candidate. The case is perhaps a hard one, but not more so than that of the petr disposed of in GO. 263 3.4.95

There seems no ground for concession in this case.

To
H. Moberly Esquire
Collector of Malabar

The District Forest officer
South Malabar

The humble petition of M. Andi Head Clerk District Forest office South Malabar. ~~respectfully~~ Respectfully Showeth:—

Letter recommended for exemption

(1 That the petitioner belongs to the backward class of Ezhuvans, who inhabit the Palghat Taluk in South Malabar (vide grant in aid code rules published in Fort Saint George Gazette dated 5th December 1893) They are rude and mere dependents of the land holders. While the Country around is blazing with western education that part of Palghat where the Ezhuvans inhabit remain as dark as ever, being immersed in ignorance. Among thousands of these inhabitants there are on the whole only 7 passed candidates 6 Matrics and one F. A. of whom four are in the Government Service including the petitioner himself and two unemployed. The remaining one is prosecuting his study. But none of them has ever had the fortune of attaining a maximum degree of education owing to poverty and other circumstances that stand in their way. Now fortunately, though late, the benevolent Government has taken up their their cause with a view to propagate higher education, made the Ezhuvan students half free in the school and set up a scholarship for the first in arts examination by way of encouragement. These helps were not conferred upon during the petitioner's scholastic career.

2. That the petitioner has passed the Matriculation examination, but was prevented by sheer poverty to continue his study. He entered public Service in 1887 as a Range clerk and having pleased his Superiors by the discharge of his duty was promoted as Second clerk in District Forest Office, South Malabar where he has had the fortune of having been promoted again as the Head clerk in 1890. He remains as the Head clerk to the present day.

3. That the petitioner has been, since the date of his first entertainment in the Government Service, postponing year by year owing to the pressure of work to appear for the Criminal Test examination till the year 1893 when the notification in the Fort Saint George Gazette disqualifying Matriculates to appear for the criminal lower, thwarted and ruined all his future prospects. The fact that the petitioner could not appear for the Special Tests when no bar existed was no fault of his as he had to pay unintermittent and incessant attention to his office duty without availing of a single holiday even, on account of the ~~the~~ incomplete state of the Staff

Staff in the office. The necessity for raising the office to a first class one owing to heaviness of the work is recorded in Board's Proceedings, dated 14th April 1894 F Nº 253 and 6th May 1892 F Nº 475 Mis, as well as, the Conservator's Inspection report of 94 – 95.

4. That the petitioner has now no other alternative than to rest his hope upon the mercy of the Government to which the petitioner in his humble attitude craves to be recommended for exemption from the bar that prevents him to appear for the criminal Test lower. As the petition has to support his family with his monthly pay he will not be able to take leave and prosecute his study for the First in arts Examination as they and himself entirely take their life upon this pittance of his monthly Salary.

5. Under these circumstances, the petition advances this, his humble prayer, for granting him a Special Sanction to appear for the Crimina Lower Test with the hope that the petitioner's case will be taken into your honor's benign Consideratio – staff in the office. The reason for raising the office to a first class one owing to heaviness of the work is recorded in Board's Proceedings dated 14th April 1894 No. 253 and 6th Aug 1892 No. 475 Revenue, and [illegible] Inspection Report of 14th [illegible]

4. That the petitioner has then no other alternative than to rest his hope upon the mercy of the Government to select the petitioner in the humble petition chance to be recommended for exemption from the bar that prevents him to appear for the Criminal Test Lower. As the petitioner has to support his family with his monthly pay he will not be able to take leave and prosecute his studies for the F. A. and such examination as they [illegible] take their life upon the pittance of his monthly salary.

5. Under these circumstances, the petitioner addresses this his humble prayer for granting him a special sanction to appear for the Criminal Test with the hope that the petitioner's case will be taken into your favourable consideration.
