No. 4374.

From

THE HONORABLE MR. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc.,

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

Madras,

To

THE HONORABLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

FORT ST. GEORGE.

SIR,

Under the redistribution of the territorial jurisdiction of the Inspectors and Assistant Inspectors sanctioned in G.O. No. 402 Educational, dated, 6 June last, the Tanjore District and the Madura and Dindigul ranges of the Madura District constituted the sixth Division, and the remaining portion of the Madura District and the whole of the Tinnevely District the seventh Division, while Coimbatore, Salem and Trichinopoly formed the eighth Division. This arrangement which has been in force during the last nine months has not been found to work satisfactorily. As regards the 6th and and 7th Divisions, there is in the first place the anomaly of one district being under two Assistant Inspectors, and divided responsibility can hardly conduce to good results, to say nothing of other administrative inconveniences which the present distribution has given rise to. In the second place the Assistant Inspector of the Sixth Division has unnecessarily to pass through Trichinopoly, whenever duty calls him to the Madura District and thus to incur unnecessary extra expenditure in the matter of travelling allowance. Thirdly, the annual reports and returns for the Madura District have to be prepared by two Assistant Inspectors and delay in their submission on the part of either officer is apt to lead to delay in the consolidation of such returns and reports for the whole District. Turning next to the eighth Division, it may be pointed out that the three districts comprising it have made the division too unwieldy to be successfully and efficiently managed by one officer, and a reduction in this officer's charge has been pressed on my consideration. With a view to obviate these difficulties, I have the honour to recommend that that the sixth, seventh, and eighth Divisions be reconstituted as follows, the territorial jurisdictions of the Inspectors of schools, Southern and Western circles, continuing to remain as at present:-

	Head quarters
Sixth Division	Tanjore and Trichinopoly
Seventh do	Madura and Trimevelly
Eighth do	Coimbatore and Salem

The Nilgiris will, as now, continue under the direct supervision of the Inspector, Western circle. The Assistant Inspector, Sixth Division, whose jurisdiction, as herein recommended, will come under two Inspectors, will be instructed to correspond through the Inspector of schools, Southern circle, on all matters relating to the Tanjore District, and through the Inspector of schools, Western circle, as regards the Trichinopoly District. This arrangement cannot create much inconvenience. As to matters of a general nature nature, this Assistant Inspector will correspond with the Inspector, Southern circle, the head-quarters of the Division being located in that circle. The Inspectors concerned and the Assistant Inspectors 6 and 7 Divisions, who were consulted on the matter have expressed their concurrence with the proposals now made, and I request that the sanction of Government may be obtained to them, so that the redistribution may be brought into effect from 1st July next.

I have the honour to be,
sir,

Your most obedient servant.
