His Excellency The Right
Honorable Lord Wenlock
G. C. S. I. Governor-in-Council, Fort. St. George

The humble memorial of Mohamed Abdul Khader Shadi son of the late Abdul Ghamithan Bahadur.

Respectfully sheweth -

That your Excellency's memorialist with due deference and esteem brings the following few lines to your Excellency's favorable consideration.

- (1) That your memorialist has been recently exempted from passing the "Upper Secondary Examination" by your Excellency's G. O. no. 757 Educational, dated 6th October 1894, in view to his admission into the public service but before he gets a footing into the public service, he intends to appear for some of the special tests, the admission of several branches of which will be debarred from the next year for the candidates of similar circumstances as your memorialist & also, which is unavoidably reg? for his improvement under the British control.

- (2) It is evident that your memorialist's principal object from exemption was to prepare himself for some of the special tests in view to his future prospects in superior service.

(3) The exertion, of your memorialist's preparing for the Judicial test & Criminal test &c. this year which is the last & incalculable chance for us, has formally encouraged your memorialist to pray your Excellency to be graciously pleased to afford him permission for the same -

(4) Concessions of similar nature have ^{been} made by your Excellency regarding, Mohamed Abdul Hai Sahib son of Ahmed Mohiuddin Khan Bahadur vide G. O. no 275 & many others -

For, which Act of benevolence & mercy as in duty bound he shall ever pray -

Md. Abdul Khader
