C. No. 2978/95

FOR ORDERS.

The I. G. of Police requests that the following clerks in his office may be exempted from the Examn. rules:—

(1) Sómasundaram Pillai
(2) Nityánanda Mudali
(3) Rájú Mudali
(4) Muniswami Naick &
(5) Muhammad Asadulla Sahib

(1) Sómasundaram Pillai has passed the Old General Test. He has been Translator on Rs 40 p.m. in the I. G's office since 1880. Under para 5 of G.O. of the 11th January 1869 No 33 Jud. his pay was met hitherto from Contingencies but under recent orders the post he holds has been brought on the permanent list and as under under the present Public Service Notification a pass in the Old General Test does not qualify

MS

Order. 9 May 1895, No. 357

Somasundram Pillai & Nityananda Mudali will be exempted from the Examination Rules in ~~order~~ to enable them to hold their present appointments vizt. those of translator on Rs. 40/- & despatching clerk on Rs. 15/- respectively.

2. Raju Mudali will be similarly exempted with a view to permit his being employed as a clerk in the I.G.'s office on pay not exceeding Rs. 30/- per mensem.

3. Sufficient cause has not been shewn for the exemption of Muniswami Naick, which will therefore be refused, and the Govt. sees no reason to exempt permanently Muhammad Asadulla Sahib from the Precis Writing Test. He will however be permitted to hold his present appointment until the results of the next Examination are published qualify one for appointment to a post on Rs 15 or upwards in the Superior Service, Somasundaram Pillai's exemption from the Examn rules is necessary. But as this has been brought about by a change in the system of debiting his pay, there ~~is~~ seems no objection to his exemption.

Sómasundaram Pillai may therefore be exempted from the Examn rules?

(2) Nityánanda Mudali is an unpassed man. He has been a despatching clerk on Rs 10 p.m. in the I.G.'s Office since 1883. He was paid hitherto from contingencies but the appointment he holds has now been brought on the permanent list and its pay has been raised to Rs 15 p.m. Nityánanda Mudali may therefore be exempted from the Examn rules so far as his employment as a clerk on Rs 15 is concerned!

(3) Ráju Mudali is an unpassed man. He has been Head Constable on Rs 22 p.m. in the I.G.'s Office since 1880 and has been auditing Railway warrants ever since. The Head Constable's post on Rs 22 has now been abolis and Raju Mudali has been brou on the clerical branch of the I. Office as a Railway warrant audit clerk. The pay of this ap pointment is not known but it is not above Rs 30 the maximum pay assigned for the post in the progressive scale proposed in par IV (h) of Col. Porteous' letter recorde in G.O. d 27th Nov. 94 no 2861 Judl Ráju Mudali may therefore be exempted from the Examn rules so far as concerns his employment as a clerk in the IG's Office on a pay not exceeding Rs 30 p.m.?

(4) Muniswami Naick is an unpassed man. He has been a clerk on Rs 18 p.m. in the Office of I.G. of Police since 1884. His appointment took place before the Examn rules were extended to posts on Rs 15 p.m. in 1887 and his promotion is barred by G.O. d 28th July 1886 no 482 Ed. His exemption has not been rendered necessary by the reorganization of the I.G.'s Office sanctioned in G.O. d 28th March 95 no 653 Judl and Govt has makes a rule of refusing ~~invariably refused~~ exemption to had passed men whose promotion sanctioned by G.O. d 27th July 1886 No 482 Ed. Munisawmi Naick cannot therefore, it is submitted, be exempted from the examn. rules.

(5) Muhammad Asadulla Sahib is the circuit clerk of the I. G. of Police. He was until recently in the Rs 45 to Rs 60 grade and was drawing Rs 54 per mensem. In the reorganization of the I. G.'s Office recently sanctioned the pay of his appointment has been fixed at Rs 65 and as all clerks on Rs 60 & upwards are now required to pass the Precis Writing Test, it is requested that Md. Asadulla Sahib may be exempted from passing the Precis Writing Test. This request is a most unusual one and is inadmissible. Please see note under cover of G.O. d 2nd Nov. 94 No 843 Ed.

Perhaps the clerk may be exempted from the test until the results of the examination to be held in October next are known. The exemption is required in order to enable the man to hold the post of circuit clerk for which he is well fitted - as has been proved in the past: it appears therefore not unreasonable to exempt him from the precis-writing X
