CURRENT No. 401

To,

His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council through the Head assistant Collector of Salem.

May it please your Lordship.

The humble and most respectful petition of P. S. Lakshmana ayyar, Inchf, Head assistant Collector's office, Salem, Tirupattur.

The benign Government having been pleased to pass an order in G. O. Nos. 30[1]/7 Miscellaneous dated 3rd August 1894, 524 Educational dated 21st July 1894 to receive applications from persons holding appointments in Government Service for exemption from the operation operation of examination rules the petitioner begs most respectfully to submit the following for your Excellencies benign consideration and favourable orders.

1. The humble petitioner was entertained in the said office as acting attender on the 2nd. September 1890 by Mr. Frank Levy the then acting Head assistant Collector and the petitioner continued as such till the beginning of the year 1891, when, he was given a permanent appointment (Copyist) in the same office and was appointed to act Sub-protem Munshi of the same office. The petitioner having continued as acting Munshy till the beginning of the year 1893, was confirmed in a salaried appointment as attender of the same office by Mr. J. H. Munro the then acting Head assistant Collector and in the month of March of the same year he was promoted to the Munshy's place on Rs10 by Mr. J. P. Bedford the present acting Head assistant Collector. From that time the petitioner has been doing clerical work in addition to his legitimate work to the entire satisfaction of his superiors.

2. That he, after passing the Middle School Examination in the Second class in 1887, studied for the Matriculation Examination and appeared appeared for the Examination. The petitioner regrets to submit that he was somewhat deficient only in Mathematics and therefore plucked in the same subject. He very satisfactorily passed in all other subjects. His poor circumstances did not permit him to continue to appear again and pass the examination and was driven to the bare necessity of seeking an appointment. Had it not been for his poor circumstances he would have continued and passed the Examination successfully. After securing an appointment, he humbly begs to submit to your Excellency's benign consideration that that he had hitherto little or no time to study, his work in the office having always been very pressing. He has been working very hard in the office and (humbly begs to submit) found to be always willing in his work. The humble petitioner also thinks that it will not be valuable if he himself describes the Educational attainments he possesses. He humbly begs leave to submit to your Excellency's generous consideration that he is very well conversant with every branch of clerical work in the Head assistant Collector's office and the only bar for his promotion with all the Educational attainment he he possesses, is the Examination Rules. Whether or not the humble petitioner deserves the grant of his request is a thing which entirely depends upon the opinion of the Officer under whom he has been serving, and also in the hands of benign Government, which, has recently been pleased to modify the stringent Educational rules in the recent Notification in regard to the Public Service and he therefore wishes to reserve dwelling more in the matter of his personal qualifications and Educational attainments which do not make him shine and better his prospects for want of the Educational qualification and Submi this humble petition through hi head of the office (the Head assistant Collector.

3. The humble petitioner most respectfully begs leave to submi that your Excellency in Council will be pleased to exempt him from the operation of the Examination rules and thus better his prospects. He humbly hopes that if this exemption is only granted to him he will at no distant time pass the required revenue tests for higher appointment in this Department Department. If your Excellency in Council thinks that the petitioner does not deserve such a high aspiration, the petitioner most humbly and respectfully begs to request that he will be quite content if he is exempted from the operation of Examination rules so far as a 15 Rupees appointment is concerned in this Department. For this act of charity, the poor petitioner shall as in duty bound ever pray for your Excellency's long life and benign administration.

He begs to remain,
Your Excellency's most obedient Servant.

Submitted through the Collector of Salem. The petitioner has certainly done very good work for me during the past two years. He is intelligent and writes a good hand and is conversant with all branches of the office-work. He would make a good Clerk.
