Sir,

With reference to your endorsement No. 12139, dated, the 13 December 1894, I have the honour to state that as M.R.Ry. N. Raghunatha Charriyar, Assistant Inspector of Schools, Fourth Division, was in charge of the office of Inspector of schools for 30 days from 26 September to 25 October 1894, the period during which Mr. Marsden was absent on privilege leave, and as he was not transferred from another station, he is not entitled to any charge allowance under article 176 of the Civil Service Regulations - vide Articles 120 and 123, Civil Service Regulations

Under

Under Article 1103, Civil Service Regulations, he is not entitled for the above period to the travelling allowance admissible to Inspectors of schools except under the special orders of the Local Government.

No. 3227

From

The Honorable Mr. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc.,
Director of Public Instruction,
Madras,

To

The Honorable The CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,
Fort St. George.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that under Article 176, of the Civil Service Regulations, you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government for payment of charge allowance to M.R.Ry. N. Raghunatha Chariyar B.A., Assistant Inspector of schools, Fourth Division, who was placed under G.O. No. 145, Educational, dated 14 September 1894, in charge of the office of the Inspector of schools, Central Circle, without prejudice to his own duties.

2. In the enclosed copy of his letter letter, No. 3807, dated, 19 December 1894, the Accountant General contends that M. R. Ry. N. Raghunatha Chariyar is not entitled to any charge allowance. It will be seen from Article 123, that the ruling in Article 120 applies only in the case of an officer appointed under Article 176 to be in charge of the current duties of an office. But it will be observed from Mr Marsden's letter, enclosed, that the chief work of his locumtenens during his absence lay in Nellore. M. R. Ry. Raghunatha Chariyar had, therefore, to make special and rapid tours in the Nellore and Chingleput Districts and inspect 9 institutions and offices of the three Sub-Assistant Inspectors of Schools in addition to his own inspection and office work he had to do the inspection and office work of the ~~Inspector of schools~~, Central Circle also. The charge no doubt entailed on him a substantial increase of responsibility and additional work.

This is assigning a forced meaning to the expression "current duties" which does not properly belong to it
D/2.5

3. With reference to the technical objection that the Assistant Inspector was not transferred from another station I beg to point out that when Mr Marsden had to go on Privilege leave — M.R.Ry Raghunatha Chariyar was on tour at Chingleput and he had to return to Madras chiefly to take charge of the Central Circle.

This does not amount to a transfer of "station" which means "headquarters"
D/2.5

4. I beg to request also that M.R.Ry Raghunatha Chariyar may be allowed travelling allowance admissible to Inspectors of of schools in the circumstances represented above for the period he was in charge.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
D Duncan
Director of Public Instruction.

T. W. Rawlins Esquire,
ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

To
THE Chief Secretary

Educational Department.

SIR,

In returning the enclosures received with your endorsement Nº 748 dated the 4th of April 1895, I have the honour to state that M R Ry Raghunatha Chariar Avergal Assistant Inspector of Schools 4th Division was in charge of the Office of the Inspector of Schools, Central Circle in addition to his own duties from the 26th September to the 25th October 1894 the period during which Mr Marsden was absent on privilege leave. As Madras is the Head quarter Station of both the Officers M R Ry Raghunatha Chariar Avergal cannot be held to have been transferred from — another station for the purpose of Article 120 of the Civil Service Regulations. Even if it be held that his additional appointment involved change of station he will not be entitled to any charge allowance for performing the duties of the Inspector of Schools as his salary Rs 420 as Assistant Inspector of Schools exceeds the salary Rs 366. 10 8 per mensem which he would receive if he officiated as Inspector alone and he cannot be allowed more than the highest salary to which he would be entitled if he officiated in either of the appointments alone. Vide Articles 177 and 186 Civil Service Regulations.

120

Government can under Article 1103 of the Civil Service Regulations allow the Assistant Inspector to draw the travelling allowance admissible to an Inspector for the period he was in charge of that Office.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedt. Servant,

Accountant General.

C. No. 353 of 95

FOR ORDERS.

In G.O. d 14th Sept-94 no 145 Routine, Mr. Marsden, Inspector of Schools, central circle, was granted one month's privilege leave and M.R.Ry. N. Raghunathachari Asst Inspector of Schools, Fourth Division, was placed in charge of the Inspector's office without prejudice to his own duties.

The D.P.I. now requests that Raghunathachari may be granted a charge allowance for the 30 days he was in charge of the Inspector's office and under art 1103, C.S.R. he may be permitted to draw the travelling allowances admissible to Inspectors of Schools.

Under art 123 A. Raghunathachari is not entitled to any charge allowance.

Raghunatha chari is in the First class of the Upper Subordinate Service and gets Rs 420 a month. If he were to act as Inspector he would be entitled to Rs 333-5-4 being 2/3s of Rs 500, the minimum pay of the Fourth Grade; he cannot therefore be made to act for Mr Marsden under art 184; and cannot be granted a charge allowance under art 177 unless the Govt makes the declaration indicated in Rule 1 under Article 184; & even so, art 123 A prevents his drawing it for the 1st 30 days in this case. Under art 1103, Govt can by special order permit Raghunathachari to draw the travelling allowances admissible to Inspectors of Schools. The following order is proposed.

Order. of 9th May 1895, No. 382.

Under Art. 1103 of the C.S.R. M.R.Ry. Raghunatha Chariar will be permitted to draw the travelling allowances admissible to an Inspr. of Schools ~~during~~ for the period during which he was in charge of Mr Marsden's duties. Under the rules

2. No charge allowance can be sanctioned.
