for Wynaad Sub. En.

Requests to obtain orders of Govt. for exempting certain — from the Examination rules.

Current 1893

No. 151 dated 9th April 1895

Submitted to the Chief Engineer, P.W.D. with a request that he will be good enough to obtain orders of Govt.
exempting these men
from the examination rules as long as they are employed in Wynaad, as it is difficult to induce qualified men to accept temporary appointments on Rs 15 per mensem in the malarious locality.

Sir,

ENCLOSURE

I have the honor to report that there are two vacancies for temporary clerks in the Wynaad, salary Rs 15/-

2. These vacancies were advertised in the Fort St. George Gazette and three qualified men applied for them and were appointed but all the three men subsequently declined the appointment one after the other.

3. I then offered the posts to the men employed in the Peryar Division who also refused to accept them.

4. Under these circumstances and as the services of the clerks are urgently required, I have appointed the following individuals who though not fully qualified are willing to serve in the Wynaad and request early sanction to
