May it Please your Excellency.

I the undersigned Humble Petitioner most humbly beg to remind your Excellency in Council, of my Manuscript called "Authentic Documents of Poisonous Indigenous Literature" sent to your Excellency's address, by book Post on the 3rd Instant.

(1) After printing a few specimen copies of my book I had sent 9 copies to the Madras Director of P. I. and 6 copies to the Colombo Director of P. I. in 1891 and 1892 for a Report.

(2) By the official Memos of the Colombo and Madras Directors of P. I. which I beg to send to your Excellency in Council to day under a separate cover by Book Post - it is very plain that the Colombo Director was all this time from 1892 to hear the Report on the book from the Madras Standing Book Committee - to introduce my book into all Berylton Schools, and that the Madras Director has not done anything to my book - which is quite contrary to the Madras P. I. official Memo of 21st June 1890. ^{BB} 552 and 18th August 1891. ^{BB} 607 - which are sent to day under a separate cover.

(3) It is very strange to understand, that Dr. Duncan had returned to me the clean, printed specimen copies he had, in 1893; and also the copy which was under inspection for 5 months by the order of the President (vide Memo. P.).

(4) I one of the poorest subjects of Her Majesty the Queen and Empress of India do not know how to carry on the Madras Govt of the (vide Memo. X. 12 89 of 4th February 1895; and therefore, most humbly beg your Excellency in Council, whether I am to be encouraged, or discouraged for my labours of many years, the great object of which is to give a very strong checking to the "Poisonous Indigenous Literature" which is the bitterest enemy to sound Education on the Western lines approved by Government and the Liberals from 1822 up to the present time.

For which act of charity, and justice, the humble Petitioner as in duty bound Mead Street } shall ever pray. A. Joseph Munsie.
