Read—again the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture), dated 25th October 1894, Mis. No. 6534 :—

Read—letter from the Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Madras, dated 21st August 1894, No. 388.

ABSTRACT.—Submitting a scheme for the examination of Stock Inspectors for promotion to Rs. 100 as directed in B.P., dated 8th May 1894, No. 2822.

Resolution—dated 25th October 1894, Mis. No. 6534.

The syllabuses and scheme of examination prepared by Mr. Turnbull will be referred to the Commissioner for Government Examinations for favour of his remarks, with reference to B.P., dated 2nd May 1894, No. 179, and G.O., dated 27th April 1894, Mis. No. 1675, Revenue Department.

2. The scheme generally appears to the Board to comprehend all that is essential and to be merely an amplification of the present (special) intermediate standard on Veterinary Science for the Government Technical examinations.

3. Four of the five Stock Inspectors who become eligible during the current year (vide paragraph 6 of B.P., dated 3rd February 1894, No. 66) have already completed the ten years service necessary for promotion to the grade of Rs. 100, and the fifth will complete his service early in January next. The Board would therefore recommend that arrangements may be made for holding a special examination to test the proficiency of these Inspectors early in 1895.

Read—again the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture), dated 21st November 1894, Mis. No. 7012 :—

Read—the following letter from E. H. ELLIOT, Esq., B.A., Secretary to the Commissioner for Government Examinations, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue R.S., L.R. and Ag.), dated Madras, 14th November 1894, No. 3847 :—

With reference to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (R.S., L.R. and Ag.), dated 25th October 1894, Mis. No. 6534, I have the honour, by direction, to point out that the syllabus drawn up by Veterinary-Lieutenant H. P. Turnbull in connection with the proposed examination for Stock Inspectors appears to cover very much the same ground as the present syllabus for Veterinary Science in the Government Technical examinations, a copy of which is herewith forwarded. It will be observed that this syllabus is for three separate grades or standards of examination—Elementary, Intermediate and Advanced; that the examination for the second of these grades—Intermediate—is in two stages, each with a separate syllabus for itself; and that the Advanced examination again is in three stages, with a separate syllabus for each stage. The syllabus, as a whole, is of a most comprehensive nature, and appears to take in a great deal more than is included in Mr. Turnbull's syllabus. As it is proposed to bring the new examination under the general scheme for the Government Technical examinations, and as there appears to be no necessity for a new syllabus, I am to suggest that Mr. Turnbull be requested to consider whether any of the existing syllabuses on Veterinary Science in any of the sections into which the Government Technical examinations in this subject are divided, would not answer either as it stands now, or with modifications. It would be better, the Commissioner thinks, to avoid adding, if this can possibly be done, to the already long list of subjects and syllabuses included in the scheme of the Government Technical examinations.

2. The syllabus for Veterinary Science was, I am to add, drawn up for Government, and was only lately thoroughly revised by Veterinary-Surgeon-Captain Burke assisted by Mr. Benson.

3. Mr. Turnbull's syllabus is herewith returned.

Resolution—dated 21st November 1894, Mis. No. 7012.

Communicated to the Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, for report.

2. The Board observes, however, that the standard proposed is about the same as that up to which the Government desires that teaching should be carried in the special veterinary course to be organised at Saidapet (G.O., dated 10th August 1894, No. 587, Revenue), and that the test may be very much the same as that to be devised for the new Veterinary Intermediate test, except that much greater weight should attach to the practical side than to mere book learning in the test for promotion.

3. The Board would suggest that, as soon as the new Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Mr. Harris, joins, the Commissioner might refer the revision of the standards to a small committee, and that, if this suggestion be agreed to, it would be advantageous to secure the assistance of Veterinary-Captain Hazelton, A.V.D., on the committee, as that officer has had much experience in practical veterinary work in this Presidency.

Read—again Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture), dated 10th December 1894, Mis. No. 7515.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating to the Commissioner for the Government Examinations letter from the Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, requesting that the committee referred to in B.P., Mis. No. 7012, dated 21st November 1894, may be called as soon as possible.

Read—again the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture), dated 21st December 1894, Mis. No. 7781:—

Read—the following letter from E. H. ELLIOT, Esq., B.A., Secretary to the Commissioner for Government Examinations, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue (R.S., L.R. and Ag.), dated Madras, 13th December 1894, No. 4223:—

With reference to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (R.S., L.R. and Ag.), dated 10th December 1894, Mis. No. 7515, I am directed to suggest the appointment of the following persons as members of the committee it is proposed to form:—

Mr. C. Benson (Chairman).

Veterinary-Captain Hazelton.

Mr. Harris (Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department).

Mr. W. Keess.

It is understood that the committee will be appointed by the Board and not by the Commissioner. I am only to add that the Commissioner will be glad to furnish such information as may be required and render all the assistance he can.

Resolution—dated 21st December 1894, Mis. No. 7781.

The Board would have preferred, as suggested in its Proceedings, dated 21st November 1894, No. 7012, paragraph 3, that the committee should have been appointed by the Commissioner for Government Examinations in order that it might at the same time have been asked to consider the new syllabus in Veterinary Science, intermediate, which has been called for in G.O., dated 10th August 1894, No. 587. To obviate any further delay, however, the officers mentioned by the Commissioner will be requested to be so good as to form themselves into a committee with a view to formulating proposals for the examination of Stock Inspectors for promotion. Their attention will be specially drawn to the remarks of the Commissioner for Government Examinations in his letter read in B.P., dated 21st November 1894, No. 7012.

2. To facilitate the work of the committee and for the information of those officers who are not acquainted with the correspondence, the Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, will be requested to circulate amongst the committee copies of the following papers:—

Read—also the following letter from C. BENSON, Esq., M.R.A.C., Chairman of the Committee, to the Secretary to the Director, Department of Land Records and Agriculture, dated Chepauk, 2nd March 1895:—

With reference to B.P., No. 7781, Mis., of 1894, I have the honour to report, on behalf of the committee therein appointed, that we have considered the matter referred to us and arrived at the following conclusions:—

1. That none of the syllabuses at present laid down in the scheme for the Government Technical examinations are altogether suitable as a standard, whereby the question whether the Stock Inspectors have maintained their professional knowledge can be tested. The Intermediate standard, as it at present exists, is a special one drawn up to suit an agricultural course only; the advanced standard is considerably higher than could be demanded of the Stock Inspectors.

2. That, as the examination is a purely departmental one, it should be conducted departmentally, and generally on the lines of the syllabus drawn up a few years ago for the entrance examination of probationers (B.P., No. 269 of 1889).

3. We suggest that the examination should be conducted by the Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, and that, if the Board considers it advisable, a second Veterinary Officer may be associated with the Superintendent for the conduct of the examination.

4. The examination should be both by means of written papers and by a practical and oral examination. We suggest the following scheme for approval:—

Subject.	Written paper.		Oral and practical.	Marks required to pass.
	Time.	Marks.	Marks.
1. Anatomy and Physiology (about Intermediate standard) ..	1½ hours.	100	..	40
2. Veterinary Medicine and Surgery (about Intermediate standard, but also to embrace stock-breeding and management).	2 hours.	100	100	{ Paper 40 Practical 50
3. Contagious diseases of horse, ox, sheep and pig ..	2 hours.	100	100	{ Paper 40 Practical 50

The Stock Inspectors to obtain promotion should pass in each subject.

Resolution—dated 5th March 1895, No. 58.

G.O., dated 13th April 1894, No. 255.

" " 27th " " " 1675, Mis.

The report read above will be submitted for the orders of Government with reference to their orders noted on the margin.

2. In pursuance of the instructions conveyed in the second order quoted above, Mr. Turnbull, then Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, in August last submitted a scheme for the examination of Stock Inspectors for promotion which was referred to the Commissioner for Government Examinations for his remarks. In reply that officer suggested that one or other of the existing syllabuses in Veterinary Science should be adopted in lieu of Mr.

Stock Inspectors for promotion and drew their attention to the correspondence which has taken place on the subject. Their report is read above.

3. The Board considers that the proposals of the committee may be accepted and that the examination should be a departmental one. It will, however, be necessary for the Inspector-General, Civil Veterinary Department, to state how he would suggest that the proposal of the Government of India made in paragraph 3 (7) of its letter read in G.O., dated 18th November 1893, No. 993, regarding the association, in conducting such an examination, of a Veterinary Officer from outside the province may be given effect to. He will be requested to report on this point at a very early date as several Inspectors have already qualified by service for their promotion.
