Resolution

Submitted to Government with the recommendation that the exemption asked for may be sanctioned for 3 months only with effect from the 18th March 1895. This is the period mentioned in the acting Head Asst.
Assistant Collector's letter dated 2nd May 1895 but the application for exemption neither states the date of

of the vacancy, as required in Column 5 nor its duration for the purposes of the present application.

2. The Board also observes that although the period for which exemption was sanctioned by the Collector expired on 18th March last, the application for exemption was not renewed until the 2nd instant and did not reach the Board's office until the 27th i.e. a few days before the expiry of the second period of three months.

3. The Collector's attention will be drawn to Board's Standing Order No. 211 para 13 which requires all Officers to adopt an intelligible signature - The Assistant Collector Mr. Pope who signs for the Collector should be instructed accordingly
