Madras, 30 May 1895

Sir,

With reference to the Govt order, dated June 1894 communicating to me the result of the Intermediate Exam<sup>n</sup> in Laws of the University of London, held at Madras in January 1894, I beg to submit on the present occasion an application for the L.L.B. Examination of the same University to be held in January 1896 and request that arrangements may be made with the authorities of the University to hold the Examination at Madras. I submit with this application the Bank's receipt for Rs 90-9-1, the equivalent at the current rate of exchange of £ 5, which is the fee prescribed for the Examination. I request that in the correspondence with the Home authorities my name may be spelt as usual, viz. L. D. Swamikan.

The Examination of L.L.B. is the highest in Law which the rules as at present framed permit to be held at Madras! but I should feel highly obliged if the Government would be pleased to ascertain whether the University of London would be prepared to make a further concession in favour of Indian candidates & allow the Examination for the Degree of Doctor of Laws to be also held at Madras, seeing that it is in practice, <sup>what</sup> other Examinations of the University are, viz, a purely written Examination.

I need not observe what a saving this concession would effect in the expenses of a candidate desirous of obtaining the London degree of L.L.D., which can at present be obtained only after Examination in London. In explanation of what would at first sight appear a premature application for the examination of L.L.D. I beg to add that in the event of my passing the ensuing L.L.B. Exam<sup>n</sup>

I would be entitled to appear for the Doctor's Examination in December.

1896 & would, if my second request is not complied with, have to proceed to England within a few weeks after the results of the L.L.B. Exam<sup>n</sup> of Jan'y. 1896 are declared in this country.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

L. D. Swamikan

For, not until January
1896 of the year
1896
January 1897. The Doctor's Exam<sup>n</sup> is held only in January not in Dec<sup>r</sup>. Please
