To

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE H. H. FOWLER, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Calcutta, the 30th January 1895.

SIR,

IN Lord Cross's Despatch No. 84 Public (Educational), dated the 8th August 1889, sanction was accorded to the creation of an additional Professorship in the Presidency College at Madras, on a salary of R500—50—700 a month, and it was stated that Mr. R. L. Jones had been appointed to the office. The agreement entered into with that gentleman showed that his appointment was to last for five years.

2. We have now the honour to forward, for your favourable consideration, a copy of a letter from the Government of Madras stating that the term of five years expired on the 3rd October 1894, and requesting sanction to the permanent retention of Mr. Jones in the Madras Educational Service on a salary of R750—50—1,000, his past service being reckoned for the purposes of leave and pension.

3. We have proposed a similar prolongation of service in the Bengal Educational Department for Messrs. Hallward and James, whose case has been referred to you in our Financial Despatch No. 29 of this date. Lord Lansdowne's Government in the Despatch No. 1, dated the 1st January 1889, proposed the creation of a Professorship for a period of ten years, but the grounds now advanced by the Government of Madras seem to us to justify the permanent retention of Mr. Jones' services. We accordingly recommend that the proposal of the Government of Madras may be sanctioned.

We have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient, humble Servants,

(Signed) ELGIN.

His Excellency the Right Honourable,
The Governor General of India, in Council
My Lord,

Having considered in Council the letter of your Government Finance and Commerce No. 28, dated 30th January last, I approve the retention of Mr. R. L. Jones in the Madras Educational Service under the conditions specified by you, but subject to the further stipulation described in my despatch No. 17 Public (Educational) of the 14th instant, on the cases of Messrs. Sallwa and James of the Bengal Service.

April 1895.

Ordered that a copy be forwarded to the Home Department, in continuation of endorsement No.

Ordered also that a copy, with a copy of the Despatch to which the above is a reply be forwarded to the Accountant General Madras, with the intimation that the further stipulation referred to by the Secretary of State is that Government may at any time terminate the engagement with Mr. Jones by giving him six months' notice, and awarding him the gratuity or pension appropriate to the length of service performed by him.

The Governor General of India in Council

My Lord,

I have considered in Council your letter Finance and Commerce No. 29, dated 30th January last, in which you forward for my favourable consideration a letter from the Government of Bengal, proposing the permanent retention in the Bengal Educational Service of Messrs. N. L. Hallward and H. R. James.

2. I approve the retention of these gentlemen in the service under the conditions specified by you, but subject to the further stipulation that the Government may at any time terminate their engagement by giving six months' notice, and awarding them the gratuity or pension appropriate to the length of service performed by them.

Respectfully

Respectively.

3. It will be in your Excellency's recollection that a stipulation of this character was proposed in Lord Cross' Despatch No. 9 of the 28th January 1892. In the event of your Government adopting this suggestion for Educational Officers generally, it would probably apply after the 11th year of service to Messrs. Hallward and James by virtue of the 4th of the conditions specified in your letter under reply, but there seems to be no reason why its application should be postponed for six years.

Sir,

In continuation of Home Department letter No. 76 dated the 11th February 1895, I am directed to forward for the information of the Government of Madras a copy of the

1. From the Govt. of India to the Secy. of State No. 28 dated the 30th January 1895.
2. From the Secy. of State to the Govt. of India No. 18 Public (Educational) d/- the 21st March 95.
3. From the Secretary of State to the Govt. of India No. 17 Public (Educational) d/- the 14th March 1895.

Despatches marginally noted, from which it will be seen that the Secretary of State has sanctioned the permanent retention of Mr. R. L. Jones in the Madras Educational Service on the conditions specified in the Government of India's Despatch and on the further condition that the Government may at any time terminate his engagement by giving him six months' notice and awarding him the gratuity or pension appropriate to the length of his service. This last condition, I am to say, will take effect from the date of extension of the five years' engagement made with Mr. Jones.
