C. No. 647 of 95.

Reference is solicited to the note under cover of G.O.
Ed. of 26.4.95 No. 318 & the Order. The ~~deed~~ deed of transfer of the Lady Hobart's Trust was forwarded to the A.G. for execution & the Govt of India was at the same time requested to declare, by notification in the Gazette of India under Sec 7 of Act XIII of 1886, that the Govt securities, the subject of the trust, may be made or endorsed to or to the orders of the holders of the offices for the time being, by the respective names of their offices. The deed has been returned by the A.G. executor, & may now be forwarded to the Director of Pub. Inst.

who has not yet executed it.
But the A.G. now points out that the D.P.S. & the A.G. are authorized to hold Govt Promissory notes by the name of their respective offices under Art 184(2) of the Civil Account Code & that the declaration by the Govt of India is not necessary.

Orders are solicited as to whether a letter should now go to the Govt of India cancelling our previous letter or whether the Govt of India's reply may be awaited. Art 184(2) of the Civil Account Code seems to be clear on the point, & the substance of it was published in a Financial notifik. - It is submitted therefore that the previous letter to India should be cancelled
