Muhammad Ali Sahib Kazari Tahsildar of Tirumellur, Chingleput District. Applies for exemption from passing the tests qualifying for the post of Dy Collector.
He has once been exempted from passing the Special tests with a view to his appointment as Sub-Magistrate. (G.O. No. 2954 of 13 August 1879.) The qualifying tests at the time for this post were Rev. Lower, Criminal Cases & Recis.
(Please see pages 308, 309 & 310 of the Asylum Press Almanack for 1879).
He now wants to be exempted from the Dy Collector's tests also.
Mr Mouney, the Dy Collector says that, being new to the District, he knows nothing of the petitioner.
It does not seem advisable to exempt the petitioner from passing the tests, as it will prove a bad precedent. He may be permitted to appear for the Examⁿ as a special case. A similar concession was granted to this Suraj-ud-din Salih in S.O. no. 713 ED of 25-9-94.

That his office work does not give him time to study for the Examⁿ.

Seems to be no strong reason.

It is open to him to take leave for a few months if he is really anxious to study & pass.

The concession allowed to this Suraj-ud-din Salih may be allowed to this petitioner also.

I know this officer well as he served under me for some time. I forgot now how I came to get him but he came to me from Saifpur I believe however - and I think that I am right - that I got him in exchange for a man of whom I wished to get rid and that the exchange was made by order of the Bd. of Revenue.

fellow with country manners capable of working fairly when in the hands up to the collar but disposed unless looked after to the interest. He would have been good enough for a deputy collector in old days but I do not think him up to the mark of the present.

I have never heard anything against his character either official or social.

I agree with the suggestion made in the office letter. I consider the concession proposed quite a sufficient one.
