now rendered ¹⁵ years service, and has invariably done his work most satisfactorily; and it appears hard that because he has been most useful in a much more important section of my office, his pay should have been limited to Rs.19 from 1st. April 1887 and to Rs.20 since 10th. August 1893, when as a copyist he would be subject to no such limit.

4. I therefore earnestly ask that His Excellency the Governor in Council may be moved to reconsider his case, and to accord sanction to the promotion, in ordinary course, of C. Mahipaty Rao up to a limiting salary of Rs.50, which is the maximum in the copying branch of my office.

OFFICE NOTE No. 2054 A.

To

W.

In G.O.No.920, Educational Department, dated 14th. December 1891, exemption from the usual examination rule was denied to two clerks in my office, viz Mr. Collins, and C. Mahipaty Rao.

2. Mr. Collins has since bettered himself outside Government service, but C. Mahipaty Rao has, notwithstanding the discouragement contained in the above denial, continued to render most cheerful and satisfactory services in this office; and I venture once more to appeal to Government on his behalf.

3. I respectfully submit that his case is a peculiarly hard one, as if he were employed as a copyist, the examination rules would not apply to him. He writes an excellent hand & would make a first class copyist; but it is entirely in the interests of the office that he has been retained all these years in the Budget and Booking Branches of this office. His work requires considerable technical knowledge and intimate acquaintance with Appendix
