Reformatory School Chingleput.
6th February 1895.

From

Surgeon Major D. A. J. Nairn M.B.
Superintendent, Reformatory School Chingleput.

To

The Director of Public Instruction
Madras.

Sir

The Superintendent of the Barilly School writes to say that the maximum number of stripes he is authorized to inflict is fifteen.

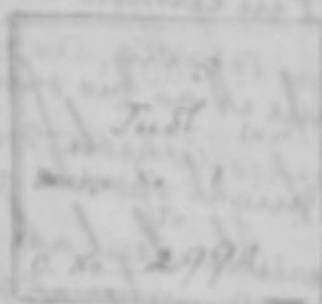

In the other Reformatory schools, as in this, the maximum number of stripes which may be inflicted is 12, but the Superintendent at Yerronda writes that "in his opinion the maximum of 12 stripes for grown up lads is not sufficient for the boys who commit serious offences." The Superintendent at Alifur states that "in certain extreme cases, administering of twelve stripes was found not not at all sufficient."

No. 6625

CURRENT NO. 2990

THE HONORABLE MR. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.C.

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

Madras,

TO

THE HONORABLE THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

FORT ST. GEORGE.

SIR,

Article 19 of the Rules for the regulation of the Chingleput Reformatory school lays down that "corporal punishment shall be administered after the manner of school discipline with a light cane" and "the number of stripes shall, in no case, exceed twelve". The Superintendent brought to my notice that in certain cases twelve stripes are not sufficient and gave it as his opinion in order that the punishment might operate as an effective deterrent, the maximum number of stripes should be raised to fifteen. The Superintendent being empowered to resort to this higher punishment in exceptional circumstances and only in the case of pupils belonging to the Senior Division. While I was personally unwilling to approve of the proposed increase

corporal punishment I did not see any way to oppose the deliberate opinion of those responsible for the discipline of the school. The Superintendent was, thereupon, requested to ascertain the practice obtaining at the Reformatories in Bombay and Bengal and from the enclosed extracts it would appear that most of these schools are in favour of this proposal. I have the honour to request, accordingly, that Government will be pleased to sanction the increase in the number of stripes now recommended and that Article 19 may be amended by adding the words "in the Junior division, and fifteen in the Senior division" after the concluding word "twelve."

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
your most obedient servant

Director of Public Instruction
