Enclosure.

SIR,

An acting vacancy on Rs 20 having occurred in my office, I was desirous of giving the appointment to one Raju Naiker, the next senior man. This clerk, I now find, is however an unpassed candidate on Rs 15, and has been in the office for the last thirteen years. It seems to me a case where, taking into consideration his length of service and good conduct in this office it would be advisable to permit exemption from the operation of the examination rules published in G.O. dated 9th May 1894 No 317. Edl., so far as promotion in this office is concerned. I make this application on his behalf, as I consider his long experience of certain branches of statistical and record work on which he has been employed during the last ten years render his services of considerable considerable value to this office.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

W. H. L. Col.
